

FUN ON THE FAIRWAYS AT GEORGETOWN

At left, Joe Kirley dishes up the steaming hot frankfurters for hungry snowmobilers Herb Elliott and W. Wilson of R. R. 2, Georgetown at Georgetown Golf & Country Club's most recent "fun day." Below clown Bob Hall, who also happens to be Georgetown Golf's greens-keeper, gives a wave beside a sleighload of smiling faces. Georgetown Golf and Country Club has hosted a series of winter fun days during the no-golf months in an attempt to make the season more bearable.

KID HOCKEY

Saturday Morning Hockey will be off this Saturday as the Tykes hold their annual tournament on March 6, but Saturday Morning Hockey will resume their play on Saturday, March 13, so watch local paper for schedule next week.

It seems there is a few tickets not turned in for draw and come March 13 the draw will be made at arena at 11 o'clock, so if any player holding tickets get in touch with Bill Fisher. Saturday morning, February 27 fans were again treated to some good hockey games and there were a few upsets in each league. Due to the 4-Town PeeWee playing out of town teams in the American League were without their best players but the teams still came up with good efforts. The upset of the morning was Buffalo's win over Springfield and their coach said his team is on the move. Scores from Saturday, Feb. 27 executive meeting was held with Senior League commissioners in regards to players using profane language and striking an official and coach who did not have control over his team. All persons involved were notified and suspensions were handed out and referee-in-chief was to have the referees to crack down on this sort of thing or else.

Dogs No Match, Deer At Bay Win Battle

Two deer, a young buck, and a big doe, probably with twin fawns in the making, were held at bay by two dogs along the north bank of the Credit River, about half mile downstream from the old dynamo site on Sunday morning, Feb. 21st.

One large dog was of a collie type, the other was of a smaller breed. The scene was first observed by Fred Spiers at 8 a.m. The scene was still the same at 11.30 a.m. The white tails were successful in protecting themselves with their front feet until the dogs finally left.

APPARENTLY UNHARMED
The dogs probably had chased the deer through the deep snow until they were near a point of exhaustion. At this stage of the chase it was wise for the deer to stop and do what they could to ward off their enemies.

Later on the graceful bounds of the deer indicated that they were apparently unharmed. The above incident was investigated by Dept. of Lands & Forest Officer Joel Test of Normandy Blvd.

Other people who witnessed the scene were my wife Beverly, Fred Darby, Outdoor writer and John and Fred Test.

NORTH HALTON CURLING NEWS

by Jane Magouson and Tracy Barrager

Last week, Stu Young entered a rink in the Country Gentlemen's Bonspiel at the Dixie Curling Club and the boys took first prize and the trophy.

Accompanying Stu were Gord Partridge, Stan Kruger and Paul Barber. Congratulations, fellows.

The season is close to being over, but if any member links go to outside spels, let us know so we can give it coverage.

HAWAII CALLS
Saturday is our annual costume dance. The theme this year is Hawaiian, and so the dance will take the form of a Hawaiian Luau. Try to think of a good costume to wear. Bring your wife or girl friend and come on out and have some fun.

The musical group are The Guys and a Gal, and they are terrific. They played for us at the New Year's Eve party.

STUDENTS BEAT TEACHERS
Last Saturday was one of the few open Saturdays of the season. I wandered out to practice for a while and wound up watching a very interesting curling match.

The husbands of a team entering the Four Year Filly later next week challenged the women to a game. The men were showing the girls different points of strategy to help set up good ends.

The students beat the teachers 8-4.

8 Teams Booked For Saturday Tournament

Thursday, February 25th
What a night Thursday — In the first game St. Louis scored three goals in the first two minutes against Pittsburgh and appeared headed for an easy win. Recovering very slowly Pittsburgh started to roll and finally wrapped up a 5-3 win by scoring 3 goals in the last 3 minutes of the game. This had to be one of the most exciting comebacks of the season.

As if one burn-burner wasn't enough, Minnesota came out in the second game and upset Los Angeles by a 2-1 score. This was the second consecutive loss for the Angels who seem to have lost their touch — or maybe some of the other teams are starting to play better.

Standings as of February 25

Los Angeles	23
St. Louis	14
Pittsburgh	14
Minnesota	13

CHIPS DOWN
Thursday player of the week goes to Jason Mogg of Pittsburgh. When the chips were down his two quick goals sparked Pittsburgh comeback in their win over St. Louis. Jason also checked very well.

Friday, February 26
Some of the Detroit players must have read last week's column and digested it well. They came off the bench flying and completely out classed the powerful Bruins. Their efforts were rewarded with a 3-1 victory — only their second of the year. Keep working fellows and who knows you might escape the cellar.

In the sandwich session Chicago and Montreal battled to a scoreless tie. This was a good game with lots of skating and excellent defensive play by both teams.

It was Toronto 5 New York 0 in the night cup. Fine passing of Toronto produced picture goals & the game looked rather easy. They gave New York goalie no chance on most of their scoring.

JOHNNY ON SPOT
Friday player of the week goes to Mitchell Game of Detroit. Giving one of his better efforts he checked well and was Johnny on the Spot on a couple of occasions, scoring 2 of Detroit's three goals.

Flyers won two and lost one at Sharon on Saturday and Sunday in the East Gwillimbury Tournament.

Georgetown Flyers went to E. Gwillimbury tournament Saturday and Sunday. Saturday produced two wins for the locals as they bested Bolton by a 2-0 score in their first round of the tournament. They went on to the next game and downed Nobleton 4-2 in the late afternoon. These wins qualified them to return on Sunday and they met E. Gwillimbury and were defeated by a 3-0 score.

TOURNEY CONTENDER
The boys played very well and gave notice they have to be reckoned with at our own tournament this Saturday.

4th Place Best Show For Bowlers at Oshawa

At Motor City Bowl in Oshawa on Sunday, sixteen junior boys and girls teams fought it out in the first annual Oshawa Invitational Junior team tournament.

Georgetown's girls team led after the second game with 240, but they just couldn't get it all together in the final game and had to settle with a fourth place finish. The boys team had some tough breaks in all three games and finished well down in the crowd. But there's still the Provincials — right boys!
