

Norval's Gymnastic Display Outstanding at Arts Night

The gymnastic display put on by the little three roomed Norval School at the presentation of the Creative and Performing Arts in Area 1 of Halton County held in Acton and district High school on Thursday evening February 23 was very well received by the audience and many favourable comments were heard.

Thirteen little girls from Grades 2, 4, 5, and 6, all dressed alike in black gymnastic suits put on an outstanding display of group activity and individual routines taught to them by their principal Mr. Larry Cigien. The girls performing were Claudia Reid, Heather and Pamela Kaufman, Valerie Watt, Christine and Janice Pomeroy, Gail Harrison, Julie Marshall, Susan Smith, Kelly Frost, Susan Ewen, Beverley Andela and Jane Sanford.

There were 10 schools participating in the variety program which consisted of choral recitations, plays, puppet shows, rhythm bands, folk dancing, etc. The performance presented by the little Norval school was one of the outstanding presentations of the evening.

Norval Presbyterian Church W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Craig McClure on Tuesday afternoon, February 23 with the president Mrs. Sam McClure in the chair.

During the business plans were made for the Dessert Luncheon and the Norval ratepayers' meeting held in choon and Easter Thankoffering meeting to be held in March. Mrs. Hyatt McClure and Miss Florence Brown gave the devotionals and Mrs. John M. McClure gave the chapter from the study book on Resources centres for better Christian literature and information. She had a good supply of books and pamphlets which contained information on a variety of subjects of interest to the members.

A social half hour followed the meeting with lunch served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Herb Anthony.

Mr. and Mrs. Dugal Smith and little son Dugal have moved into their lovely new home on the town line north of the village. They built the house well back on their property and have a beautiful view of the Credit valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turnbull of Brampton have moved into the Smith house in the village. This is the former Lindner home next to the United Church. Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull hope to establish an antique business in the old home.

Norval Cubs and some of their parents enjoyed an evening of swimming at Huron Park Recreation Centre, on Friday evening, February 19.

In the report of the Norval ratepayers' meeting held in Norval school to elect a committee to represent the Norval district at future meetings with the Halton School Board regarding keeping the school in operation which appeared in The Georgetown Herald one paragraph was missing. This was the vote by ballot to elect the chairman of the committee, Julian Reed and Peter Hughes were nominated and Peter Hughes was elected chairman. Six others were nominated to the committee — Norman Guthrie, Mrs. Joanne Frost, Bob Crawford, Julian Reed, Wray Youmans and Norman Shea.

The committee have held several meetings and along with many volunteers are very busy working towards a brief to present to the school board.

Get well wishes are extended to Norman Shea who is a patient in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital.

Miss Doreen Harrop, of RR 2 Norval and Miss Laurie Maxwell of Hornby attended the Junior Farmers' Hockey tournament held at Listowel over the weekend. Laurie was chosen to represent Halton County by the Halton hockey team to compete for Snow Queen of the tournament. Brant County won the Snow Queen honours.

Due to the bad snow storm and the heavy drifting the girls thought that they were snowed out of Listowel but the winds died down Sunday evening and they were able to get home.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Glynn and Jennifer spent the weekend with his parents, February 12-14.
