

Tournament Honours to Welland as 10 Teams Compete

Welland wins Grand Championship for the second time... and what a game!!! There was excitement galore in all nine preceding games... a sudden death overtime win, a tie decided by penalty shots — not three or six but a total of fifteen for each team! There was just so much excitement in all I couldn't keep up with it.

Game I — A surprising Bolton Cubs pounded Acton 4-0. Only great heroics by Acton goalie, D. Neely, kept the score as low as it was.

Game II — A real barnburner as Georgetown Flyers jumped into a quick 2-0 lead on goals by Brian Simpson and Matt Bauer. East Gwillimbury got one back late in the 1st period and with only four seconds left in the game they managed to tie the score. In sudden death overtime it was E. Gwillimbury again at 2:42. What a frantic action in this one.

Game III — Welland provided most of the punch and defeated Aylmer 5-1.

Game IV — A game that was expected to be a hum-dinger turned out just a so-so as Chinguacousy topped Kingston 4-1. Kingston controlled play quite well but couldn't find the mark.

Game V — Georgetown Flyers unleashed their scoring against a hapless Acton. Winning 7-0 they tended to lose team play and became a group of individuals. They did not play as well as in game II. This eliminated Acton.

Game VI — This was a game to end all games as East Gwillimbury got a 2-0 lead only to have a determined Bolton squad erase that by the end of regulation time. Many chances were missed by both teams in the overtime period and score stayed tied 2-2. The penalty shot rule was applied and after fifteen (15) penalty shots by each team Bolton finally emerged winner. Score 9-7.

Game VII — Kingston borrowed some of Georgetown sweaters and the score sure showed. They humbled Aylmer 9-1. This eliminated Aylmer.

Game VIII — Chinguacousy appeared over-confident from their win over Kingston and were soon looking at a 3-0 deficit hung on them by a well balanced Welland club. They fought vainly and finally scored 1. Final score 3-1 with Welland showing a very sound team in this game. No outstanding players, but very few mistakes were seen. An excellent game and the elimination of Chinguacousy.

CONSOLATION FINALS

Georgetown 1 Kingston 7
Game IX — After trading goals in the first five minutes Kingston got into high gear and dominated play throughout the game. This was a tribute to the Kingston boys who were the youngest over-all team in the tournament. This eliminated Georgetown and gave Kingston the Consolation Championship.

CHAMPIONSHIP

Welland 5 Bolton 3
Game X — After the strongest of East Gwillimbury.

An excited Georgetown Flyers' bench watches as their mates keep the pressure on Acton in their second test in the Georgetown Tyke Tournament here Saturday.

showing by Welland in their first two games, they had to be favored to win this one... but many of the fans were cheering for Bolton, and I guess they could hear it... they certainly went out to win, favoured or not. Bolton took a 2-1 lead and held it going into the second period. Welland came back to lead 3-2 going into the third. Bolton still didn't get the message... they're supposed to be tired and lie down on the job, but that isn't the way Bolton saw it. Tired they were but they kept right on digging and tied it up at 3-3. Two unanswered goals late in the game finally subdued the courageous Bolton Cubs and Welland won the grand championship. Trophies for the champs were presented by J. Hamilton of Standard Products.

Individual trophies to MVP from each team presented by member of the selection committee. Paul Ward, Bob Freestone and Del Beaumont, were as follows:
Acton, D. Neely; Aylmer Jeff White; Chinguacousy, Peter Thompson; E. Gwillimbury, Dave Dunec; Georgetown, Matt Bauer; Kingston, Doug Gilmour; Bolton, Dave Bennett; Welland, Perry O. Rosz.
Best goalie: Dominic Guarnagna of Bolton. MVP for the tournament was Shayne Borley.

TYKE HOCKEY

by Doreen Long

Many thanks to all those who helped make this tournament bigger and better than last year — There are too many to list but their assistance is certainly appreciated.

BAKE SALE

The mothers of the Tyke hockey players held a very successful bake sale at the United Gas Office on Friday, March 5. The money was turned over to me to add to Tyke hockey funds and will be used after much discussion where ever it is most needed. Many thanks to all who contributed and to Mrs. O. McLaughlin, Mrs. B. Simpson and Mrs. B. Bingham who convened the sale and all the many others who helped both at the sale, picking up baking and the very important job of phoning.

REGULAR PLAY

Thursday, March 4th

In a real speedy test St. Louis edged Minnesota 1-0. It is a treat to see the improvement in the boys in the past month. Many folks have commented and with just a glance, it's quite obvious.

In the second game L.A. squeaked by Pittsburgh by 1-0. Thursday player of the week goes to Doug White in net for St. Louis. With Minnesota carrying most of the play, Doug was the stumbling block and saved the day many times over.

Friday, March 5th

Toronto bested Montreal in the opener. It appears, Detroit must be the team to break Toronto's win streak next week in the last night of league play if, and it's a big IF, this win streak is to be broken. Should Toronto win next Friday, they have gone all season without a loss, but Detroit is not to be overlooked. Late though it is they're coming on strong. In the middle session Friday night they shut out New York, giving the Wings two victories in a row. Boston had to go all out to get by Chicago in the late game — but they made it.

Player of the week for Friday goes to Derek Ferguson of Detroit. He kept a sharp eye on New York attackers and moved the puck out of his own end well. On the point he kept pressure on New York many times during the entire game.

Norval Ousts League Titalists In Play-Offs

The club that won Georgetown Industrial Hockey League's regular schedule race won't be in the battle for the playoff title.

North Halton bowed out of the playoffs Sunday, beaten 3-2 by Norval in the sixth game of a best of five semi-final that went the extra distance because of a tie.

Norval registered three wins and two losses besides the deadlock.

NHL REFEREE

Refereed by National Hockey League official Bryan Lewis, and two linesmen, the final game was completed without the brawling which marked the fifth game in the series and caused it to be ended short of regulation time.

The rivals traded first period goals, and went through the middle frame scoreless. Two Norval counters in the third period couldn't be matched by the league winners who replied with a single goal.

TWO FOR DAVISON
Davison from Bradley and Brush sent Norval into a 1-0 lead. McFarlane tied it from Telford.

Davison cracked the tie from Riddall and Monckton, and Norval owned a 3-1 lead after Bradley from Monckton notched their goal.

Jack Gudgeon scored from McFarlane late in the period to reduce the difference.

Mac's Milk and Norval start their final series Sunday morning.

POWERPLAY FAILED

The one that allowed Richmond Hill to tie the series one game to one, was a 5-2 affair in which Georgetown got goals from Love assisted by Beaumont and Alexander; and Butterworth assisted by Robinson.

The locals failed to take advantage of Richmond Hill penalties five times in the first two periods.

Georgetown's Novice A Firefighters made it to the consolation round finals at the Penetang Winterama Hockey Tournament and Carnival on the February 26-27-28 weekend.

A Georgetown Novice A player, Scott Wakfer, with four goals and three assists in the four games played was selected by tournament officials as Most Valuable Player on the Georgetown club.

The Firefighters left for the tourney Friday, February 26 and played their first game Saturday morning against Downsview. Their 4-1 loss in this one put them into the consolation round. Wakfer scored Georgetown's only goal unassisted.

BLANK FALLS

Firefighters fashioned a 5-0 victory over Niagara Falls in their first consolation game in which they outshot their opposition 27-4. It was the second game in a round in which they had the edge in shots.

Though he didn't figure in the scoring, Mike Jobb was a stand-out for the locals controlling the play whenever he was on the ice. Goalie Brian Hayward and Barry Humberstone came up with the big plays when called on.

The scoring was taken care of by Tim Turner from Wakfer, Ian Reeks from Wakfer; Wakfer from Reeks and Mike McMenemy; Tim Turner from Terry Simpson; and then Reeks unassisted.

SECOND SHUTOUT

Thorold were Georgetown's victims in the second game of the consolation round, a 6-0 affair.

Scott Wakfer unassisted; Phil Buck from Tim Turner; Rick Hewitt unassisted; Ian Reeks from Scott Wakfer; Eddy Dwyer from Brent Butterworth; and Scott Wakfer from Terry Simpson produced the six goals.

County Basketball Crown Eludes GDHS

Georgetown's senior basketball hopes for a county title were dashed by Lord Nelson of Burlington last week in a two game total points set which ended 148 to 101.

Lord Nelson won both meetings, the first played here Tuesday, March 2, by an 83-47 count and the second, in Burlington on Friday, 65-51.

The senior Rebels had earlier won the East Halton crown.

SKYSCRAPERS

Two 6' 10" men, Jamie Russell and Indrek Kongrats paced the flawless Lord Nelson five to their easy first win. Collin Foster scored 11 points in spearheaded Georgetown's charge.

A tight defense was the cause of Rebs frustration in Burlington where they were held scoreless while surrendering 30 points in the first quarter. At half time they had some points on the board but were still looking at a 42-12 difference.

GOOD THIRD PERIOD

In an amazing effort Georgetown took command in the third quarter and bettered Lord Nelson 24-8. But they could only break even in the fourth period. Reb rooters are calling Lord Nelson to go on from here to the Ontario title.

Deciding Game Is Necessary As Midgets Tie Play-Offs

The Midget playoff between Georgetown Sunny Acre Farms and Richmond Hill is going right down to the wire.

The locals put together a 3-1 victory here Tuesday to snatch a possible series win away from the Hill and knot up the best of five set at two wins apiece with one game tied.

Glen Robinson from Arnold and Owenden; Owenden from Robinson; and Ray Love from Owenden were the shots that put Georgetown in a position to capture the series.

END-TO-END

Owenden and Robinson were stickouts in this well-played end-to-end contest as was goalie Gord Williams who foiled several Richmond Hill rushes and threats around the goal mouth.

Ray Love's lone goal was a booming slapshot that caught the Hill goalie flat footed.

Sunday's 5-5 saw off came about at Richmond Hill and even an overtime period didn't decide a winner.

Georgetown had a 5-2 edge with two thirds of the last period left, but the home club found three goals in the time remaining.

DELAYED TWO HOURS

Ice problems delayed this one for two hours.

Alec Owenden, unassisted; Glen Robinson from Owenden; Robinson from Owenden and Butterworth; Gene Inglis from Craig Fleming; and Pete Fendley from Bob Elineaky did Georgetown's sniping.

Wakfer MVP for Novices At Penetang Winterama

Georgetown's Novice A Firefighters made it to the consolation round finals at the Penetang Winterama Hockey Tournament and Carnival on the February 26-27-28 weekend.
