GYMNASTIC GALS IN MINI COMPETITION

Georgetown District High School's girl gymnasts prepped for competition against outside teams last week with Mini Gymnastics contest among themselves. Jennifer Linton was judged best all around novice, and Eva Katterwe, best all around junior. Her sister Sylvia was second. Her selection as "most promising" gymnast earned Eva a trip to the Ontario Gymnastic Seminar at York University this summer. Back row, from left, Sylvia Katterwe, Lisa Gillett, coach Jill Boothby, Cathy Danylchuck, Stephanie Lister; middle row: Louise Rawlinson, Vicki Robbins, Eva Katterwe; front, Jennifer Linton, Michelle Virgin. Missing is Laura Bodnar. The girls work on the balance beam, uneven bars, and do vaulting and floor exercises.

Jr. A Super Star Returns For Tourney

Marcel Dionne, the 1970-71 St. Catharines Black Hawks captain and current scoring leader in the OHA Jr. A will be attending both the Brampton Novice Tournament and the Georgetown Bantam Tournament on Saturday, March 27. The talented Drummondville native who is the holder of the most points ever scored in the OHA Jr. A ranks will be the guest of the Brampton Lions for their noon banquet at the Junior Farmers' Hall. Following this Marcel will watch the Tyke game at the arena. Marcel, and his coach Frank Milne, who last year coached Dixie Beelives to the OHA Jr. B championship, will then travel to Georgetown to watch the semi-finals starting at 3:00. Marcel who played in the 1965 Georgetown Bantam Tournament will drop the puck for the opening faceoff to start the 7:00 o'clock championship game.
