

Seminar Speaker Claims 43 Rescued from Drugs

Norman S. Panzica, the drug expert who will speak here at a special drug abuse seminar, April 28, is a consultant to the Council on Drug Abuse, and the Ontario Probation Service. The seminar is being presented in the high school by the Georgetown Police Department. Mr. Panzica was born in Welland. He had worked on various newspapers around the province and in 1959 while with the CBC was told to find a drug addict for a program. He was able to find an addict through a theology student and a police officer who had been helping her. This started Mr. Panzica in a field which has resulted in 43 successful rehabilitations out of 46 attempts with addicts. He holds a degree in Psychology from McMaster University and is still active in case work. Mr. Panzica has conducted lectures and seminars at Humber College and other educational institutions for the police, teaching, medical and other professions. A seminar similar to the one to be held here, was held in Dufferin County and was very successful. In a press release issued last week, Georgetown Police Department said the seminar was organized "due to the increase in drug abuse and the growing public concern with this subject."
