BANTS BOW OUT IN NEWMARKET

Georgetown's Four Town Bantam team had tough luck in the recent annual tournament in Newmarket where they lost both their games.

They were edged 3-2 by Cobourg in their first test, a real close battle all the way, and then dropped a 3-1 decision to Lindsay.

Ingills scored both goals against Cobourg with Crawford and Bradley assisting, while Miller scored against Lindsay from Ingills and Zuber.

The boys were billeted in Newmarket and despite the losses enjoyed their stay. Team members included Davidson, Ross, Somerville, Pemberton, Bradley, Zuber, Richmond, Thompson, Beaumont, Osborne, Moore, Crawford, Burns, Darby Ingills, Morrison, Barton, Miller, Holmes coach, and Mackie manager.
