

Fifteen Confirmed in Palm Sunday Ceremony

Fifteen young people were confirmed by Rev. R. Walter Ridley at Norval United Church on Palm Sunday, April 4. They were John Doane, Helen Dunlop, Doug Enman, Larralene Enman, Elgin Hyatt, Allan Johnson, Janet Johnson, Tom Johnson, Sam Lagerquist, Julie Laidlaw, Larry Laidlaw, Shellie Laidlaw, Terry Laidlaw, Glen Lyons and Gordon Lyons.

A pancake luncheon followed the service with the Couples Club in charge. The men made and served the pancakes to an excellent attendance and all enjoyed the social time.

Mrs. L. May and Bill Graham presented Mrs. Gordon Miller with a gift on behalf of the congregation in recognition of her 17 years as church treasurer.

Norval United Church held a double shower in the church on Tuesday evening, March 30, to honour a recent bride, Mrs. Russell Revie, the former Susan Nixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Nixon, and bride-to-be Wendy Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hunter.

Mrs. Murray Laird presided for the evening. Mrs. Gordon Laidlaw and Mrs. Bob Crawford conducted a couple of contests after which Susan was assisted by two of her sisters, Mrs. Linda Young and Jane Nixon, to open her gifts.

Wendy was assisted by her sister Debbie Hunter and Mrs. Joy Gilmore in opening her gifts after which a lunch of cake and ice cream was enjoyed.

The 4th meeting of Norval 'Dairy Daisies' was held on Wednesday March 24 at the home of Beth Laidlaw. The roll call was answered by 6 members on 'Something that affects the price of milk.' The cover design and recipe leaflets were distributed. Mrs. Bill Laidlaw demonstrated a cottage cheese dip and Kim Phyllis made cheese crisps which were sampled for lunch.

The 5th meeting was held at the home of Betty June Laidlaw on Wednesday evening March 31 with 7 members answering roll call 'A dairy food I ate yesterday.' Record books were to be up to date and handed in at this meeting. Mrs. Castle checked the notes on dairy proteins.

Beth Laidlaw made a cheese cake and Betty June Laidlaw made creamed salmon which were enjoyed for lunch and the meeting adjourned.

TROPHY SHOWERS INCLUDED FLOWERS

Not all the recipients in the parade of award winners at the conclusion of the Georgetown International Bantam Hockey Tournament were champions or most valuable players. Some of them were Most Valuable People.

Mrs. Ed Pries, who operate the arena booth was among those recognized.

John Wright was this year's winner of the most spectacular spill by a referee. Here chief ref Gerry Perkins gives him The Golden Blades for a sprawl after being hit with the puck which put him down for the ten-count.

England had its "lady with the lamp". Georgetown's Jessie Hayes is "the lady with the ladle" to the hundreds of hungry Bantams who have lunch and dinner at the Legion hall each year.

Jean Murphy, above, plus Donna Diegel had the mammoth task of finding free bed and board for young visitors from a distance.

Tykes in Running For Tourney Title

A team of Georgetown Tykes was still making progress in a Tyke Hockey Tournament at Beamsville at press time.

In the first game of the two game total points series against Beamsville on Saturday they ran up a 10-0 score. And on Sunday against the same team with reinforcements, they won 5-2.

Saturday, Mike McMenemy, Matt Bauer, Ian Reeks and Greg Thompson, each scored a pair of goals. Dave Kemshead and Ed Dwyer notched singletons.

Sunday it was Paul Morrow, Bruce McCandless, Greg Thompson, Jimmy Pearson and Billy Taylor scoring.

LOSER OUT

From here on in it's a one game elimination with Richmond Hill the next hurdle Friday night. If they continue to win it will mean two games Saturday and the final Sunday.

Also on the club are goalies Rusty Tuck and Dave Abbott, Herb Kewley, Phil Buck, and Brock Street. They are coached by Vaughn Thompson and managed by Bill James.

Tri-County Scoreboard

Juveniles, Bantams
Division Champions

JUVENILES CHAMPIONS
Georgetown Cycle & Sports Juveniles won the Tri-County AA crown by winning two games straight over Preston.

They won the first game here 6-5 and the second in Preston 2-0.

The Juveniles are currently playing in the Milton annual Juvenile Hockey Tournament where they lost their first game 1-0 to Welland in overtime. That loss put them in a consolation series with Oakville their scheduled opponent for last night's play.

BANTAMS CHAMPIONS

E. W. Bliss Bantams won their first and third games against Chinguacousy to capture the Tri-County AA Bantam laurels. The first meeting on March 23 in Georgetown was a 4-2 Georgetown victory; the second April 3 in Chinguacousy went to the home club 6-3; but the third, April 4 back here belonged to the locals 3-2.

Kevin Reeks scored twice in the series for Georgetown. Dick Popiel, Dean Popiel, Gary McFadyen, Larry Petterson, Bill Kirby, Dale Mleczanec, and Ted Kewley each contributed a goal.
