

Ice Dancers Thrill Audience As Skate Tests Total Success

The Intermediate Trophy is awarded annually to the skater most deserving in skating, attitude and hard work. From left are: Caroline Burrows (3rd), Patricia Walker (1st), and Tracy Moores (2nd).

After a year of skating round and round in circles in preparation for figure tests, Wednesday, April 7, skaters of the Georgetown Figure Skating Club proved that hard steady work pays off.

It is a rare event to have 100% pass, at any club, particularly in School Figures.

The dance tests kept a very excited audience entertained as each skater, partnered by either John Dowding, or Sharon Hewitt, danced their very best.

When a figure skating club feels they are ready for a test day, a letter from the club test chairman is sent to Toronto requesting the required panels of judges. Then the test chairman, who in Georgetown's case is Mrs. Eileen Hewitt, receives a list from the professionals of skaters they have tested and consider ready to try their test.

SKATE THROUGH SUMMER.

Before trying a test, each skater must be registered with the Canadian Figure Skating Association in Ottawa, where records of each skater are kept.

Many of our skaters will be going to summer school and by fall will have put in a lot of hours of hard work.

Bill Greenwood Successor Golf Pro Jason Haugh Stays at Bahama Club

JASON HAUGH
New Job in Bahamas

The Lucayan Country Club at Freeport in the Bahamas is the new home club for Georgetown Golf & Country Club's 1970 pro Jason Haugh.

While in the Bahamas this past winter Haugh was approached by executives of the Grand Bahama Development Company and offered a future in their organization which was just too attractive to turn down.

"Nineteen-seventy was a rewarding year for me and I will always benefit from the experience both in my career and in fond memories," he said in a letter to the Georgetown golf club members. "I feel genuine pain in saying I will not be returning to Georgetown Golf & Country Club this year."

Georgetown Golf & Country Club's new pro is Bill Greenwood.

"He is an enthusiastic fellow who will prove to be quite an asset to Georgetown," the club directors commented in an introductory letter. "He has some great ideas for clinics, junior, ladies and men's.

Many Georgetown members met their new pro at a Meet weeks ago. He is married with three children.
