In Memoriam

BEAUMONT — In fond memory of Pte. Clarence Beaumont who gave his life for the cause of freedom while serving with the Perth Support Coy, in Holland April 28, 1945. Time takes away the edge of grief. But memory turns back every leaf. — Ever remembered by mother and family.

IN MEMORIAM

BURT — In loving memory of a dear husband and father Clifford, who passed away May 3, 1968. Memories are like threads of gold. Never tarnish or grow old. No longer in our lives to share. But in our hearts, he is always there. — Sadly missed by his wife Isabelle and daughter Grace and family.

LESLIE — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother M. Agnes who passed away April 28, 1968. Though absent you are very near. Still loved, still missed and very dear. — Ever remembered by George and family.

CARDS OF THANKS

KNUTSON — The many kind expressions of sympathy at time of our recent bereavement are deeply appreciated by the family of the late Ole Knutson, our father and grandfather, and we offer our sincere thanks — Berniece and Charlie Fogal.

MURPHY — I would like to thank family and friends for visits, cards and gifts, while I was a patient in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. Special thanks to the nurses on the surgical ward, especially to Dr. Furness — Jean Murphy.

Norway was Native Land Of District Resident

Glendale Memorial Gardens in Etobicoke is the final resting place for Ole Knutson who died April 12 in Hulton Centennial Manor at the age of 88. He was the father of Mrs. Charles Fogal of R. R. 1, Georgetown and he lived with Mr. and Mrs. Fogal and family for most of the past nine years.

Ashgrove Cow Belles Visit Guelph Dairy Members of the Ashgrove Cow Belles 4-H group toured Gay Lea Dairy in Guelph recently where they viewed the packaging of ice cream, butter and powdered milk. Ice cream cones were given to each of the members at the end of the tour.

Mr. Knutson was a CNR locomotive engineer until his death in 1948. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and for recreation enjoyed fishing, hunting and playing contract bridge. He also got much pleasure playing old music on the violin.

As well as his daughter Berniece (Mrs. Fogal) at R.R. 1, Georgetown, he is survived by sons Gilman of Cathedral City, California and Arthur of Palm Springs, a brother Thor and a sister Bertha (Mrs. Edward Normann) both of Norway, and another brother Karl of Vancouver.

He was predeceased by John a brother, in New York, and another sister Lena (Mrs. Morland) of Norway. He also leaves grandchildren Gary Knutson of Cathedral City California, Karen (Mrs. How-
