in good condition, according to a hospital spokesman, though it will be a few days before he is released.

BLISTERED FEET

A spokesman for the St. John Ambulance Brigade said those were the only accidents dealt with by them during the walks but that the 14 members involved were kept busy dealing with blistered and bruised feet and chills suffered by the walkers.

Apart from litter problems, the walk, despite the weather was termed a great success by organizers.

COLLECTIONS

The organizing committee is holding a collection day for money raised this Saturday, May 6 at the Brampton Memorial arena between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. and in Bramalea and Georgetown on May 15. The collections will be made at the United Church at Cloverdale and Balmoral Drives in Bramalea and at the Cedarvale Community Centre in Georgetown.

Money and walk sheets can also be taken to Royal Bank branches.

Walkers had their sheets initialed at checkpoints verifying the mileage covered.

Sandwiches were available at the Georgetown checkpoint at Holy Cross Separate School. Many of the Georgetown walkers called it quits here.

Trip for CGIT In Slides, Talk

The CGIT group held their mother and daughter banquet on Wednesday, April 28 in Glen Williams United Church. Thirty-four sat down to a salad supper, brought by the mothers and served by the UCW. The tables were decorated in mauve and yellow with yellow daffodils.

Mrs. S. Ash introduced the head table, Rev. R. Walter Ridley, Miss Jean Ruddell, guest speaker, Miss Cindy Stafford, Mrs. Shirley Freestone, Mrs. R. Earle, Mrs. H. Steinfatt, Mrs. Donna Lambert and Mrs. Carla Rattenbury.

Rev. Ridley asked the blessing and after the meal the leader Mrs. Ash introduced the executive: president Cindy Stafford, secretary Jackie March, treasurer, Bev Campbell, vice pres. Bev Brenner; social and phone conveners, Cheryl Fendley and Frances Engleby.

Cindy Stafford thanked the mothers for coming and bringing the delicious food.

Betty Campbell proposed a toast to Rev. Ridley and presented a bouquet of flowers and a gift to him for Mrs. Ridley.

Bev Brenner toasted the mothers and Mrs. Pat March replied thanking the girls for the lovely gifts they made for them. Beverly Campbell thanked the servers and the ladies in the kitchen. Cheryl Fendley invited all to the fellowship room for the balance of the evening. All sang Come let us sing of a Wonderful Love, followed by 1 verse of the CGIT hymn. Mrs. Ash led in prayer. Bev Campbell and Jackie March took up the offering and Mr. Ridley gave the offertory prayer. He then presented Mrs. H. Steinfatt with her leaders lanyard and pin.

Betty Campbell presented CGIT pennants to Frances Engleby, Cheryl Fendley Mary Jo Brenner, Diane Spicer, Wendy Stafford and Jackie March. Bev Brenner then gave enamel CGIT pins to Beverly Campbell and Cindy Stafford. Mrs. Steinfatt presented awards to the 2 senior girls Beverly Brenner and Betty Campbell.

The mission and service donations were made as follows.

Cindy Stafford to Mrs. Betty Stafford for the United Church. Frances Engleby to Mrs. Wes Fendley for the Anglican Church Mary Jo Brenner to Mrs. Grace Brenner for Holy Cross Church.

Mrs. Ash presented perfect attendance awards to Beverly Brenner and Beverly Campbell. Diane Spicer introduced the speaker Miss Jean Ruddell who showed slides and explained the highlights of a trip she took to South America. It was most interesting and Miss Ruddell told some amazing happenings which occur in these countries. Bev Campbell thanked her and presented her with a small gift on behalf of the CGIT group. Mrs. Shirley Inglis was pianist.
