70-Year-Old Among Norval Oxfam Walkers

The Miles for Millions Walk with its millions of blisters has come and gone for another year with the route once more going through the village. There was no check point in the village this year but Norval United Church was open for washroom facilities. The cold and rain in the afternoon stopped many from finishing but they went as far as they could before giving up. It is hoped that millions of dollars for the underprivileged of the world will be raised by their efforts.

In spite of an effort by those in charge of the walk to curb litter this year, it wasn't hard to tell where the route went—just follow the trail of garbage all along the way. This is doing a lot of harm for the popularity of the walk and will need further effort to eliminate this pollution of the country side for another year.

Those from Norval school who finished the walk were Tom Frost, Kathy Wolham, Gail Harrison, Paul Smith, Kelly Frost, John Kranendonk and Douglas Codlin. Others from the village and district were Donna Ridley, Debbie Frost, Kim Wolham, Nancy Hamilton, Michael Sherry, Michael MacMillan, Jean Wilson, Jimmy Scott, Wayne Hyatt (who was among the first ones to finish the walk), Debbie Hyatt, Paul Laidlaw, and Mr. Vic Hazel (who is over 70 years of age), Egin Hyatt, Terry and Wayne Laidlaw and June Fries. Congratulations to them all. If you know of anyone in the Norval district who finished the walk please let me know and I will add their name to the list.

— Mrs. Ed McLean

Property Damage Only in Five Car Accidents

A collision at the four corners in Norval, April 30, resulted in $250 damage to one car and $150 to the other.

John A. Jeffrey, 32 Hale Dr., Georgetown, was driving the '62 Comet station wagon that received the $250 damage and William Corley, R. R. 2 Georgetown, the '69 Ford pick-up which received $150 damage.

$500 Damage was done to a '68 Volkswagen driven by Steven Long, of Brampton, in a single car accident on the base line just east of the 4th Line, on April 30.

Another single car accident May 1 caused $300 damage to a '68 Pontiac driven by Edward Paterson, 6 Sarah Street, Georgetown. The accident happened on the 17th Sideroad, west of the 10th Line, when the car went out of control, clipping off fence posts along the road.

Two May 3 accidents on Georgetown streets did about $550 in property damage but resulted in no injuries.

At 8:25 a.m. cars driven by Robert Neil Beaton of R. R. 2 Brampton and James Orwin of 56 Duncan Drive collided at the corner of Delrex Blvd. and Weber Drive. Police put damage to Beaton's 1964 Ford wagon at $150 and $250 to Orwin's 1969 Montego.

Three quarters of an hour later, vehicles operated by Margaret Spitzer of R. R. 1 Limohouse and Jack Kenneth Martin came together on Guelph Street at Mountainview Road, doing $300 damage to Margaret Spitzer's 1967 Rambler and $250 to Martin's 1971 Plymouth.

Did Hair Styles for Frog Prince
