Grandmothers to the Fore At Meeting of Institute

Mrs. Wm. McLean was hostess for the May meeting of the W. I. The president Mrs. Jesse McEnery was unable to attend due to illness. Mrs. Wm. McLean, 1st vice called the meeting to order and opened in the usual way. Mrs. Ada Kirkwood assistant secretary - treasurer read the minutes of previous meeting and gave the treasurer's report. 10 members and 3 visitors were present to answer the roll call, "What you liked to do most when you were 16." Final arrangements were made for the district annual. A committee was chosen to look after the fall fair displays.

During the reading of the correspondence a letter was passed around from the Korean boy who is being sponsored by the W. I. Two complimentary tickets were given to the health convener for her and another member to attend the T.B. Banquet at Oakville later this month. Mrs. Ada Kirkwood who was convener for this "grandmothers" meeting took over the president chair. She called on conveners for two minute reports. Mrs. Jamieson gave the motto which pointed out that we should not resent growing old as many are denied the privilege. Each member in turn gave a current event of the day. Mrs. Kirkwood conducted a most interesting contest. Member's first pictures of themselves were mixed up and passed around. There was a prize given for the one that got the most number identified correctly. Mrs. F. Smith, and Mrs. Donald McLean each got 7 out of 9 named in the right order. There was a contest for the grandmothers each had to bring cookies made from their oldest recipe. The three visitors were asked to judge the baking. Mrs. Tom Given won the award for grandmother's drop cookies. Mrs. Kirkwood's cushion was judged the best and it will be in competition at the District Annual. Three readings were given. Mrs. Given a humorous one on How we spent Mother's day; Mrs. Smith read a poem about grandmother's patch-work quilt; and Mrs. Ada McLean read one of a more serious note entitled Who will make a home for grandma.

Mrs. Given was the capable auctioneer for the sale of plants and bulbs also for a white elephant sale. This brought in a nice sum for the welfare fund. Mrs. D. McLean and Mrs. Currie assisted the hostess in serving a tasty lunch including the cookies brought in by the Grandies which all proved to be good.

The two groups of Ballinafad 4-H homemaking girls took part in achievement day at Stewarttown senior school on is the Greatest. Eileen Brown is to be congratulated for completing 18 clubs. She was presented with an advanced honours certificate and a silver pie server.

Mrs. Ada Kirkwood, Mrs. Norman McLean and Mrs. Smith attended summary day at Hillcrest Church on Tuesday of last week.
