Acton Speedway Opens, Thrills from 6 Cylinders

by Vivian Shaw

The six cylinder class gave the crowd some thrills at Acton Speedway, Sunday, May 9.

On the first lap, Bob Hogan lost control and ran off the track. George Wrighlesworth took the lead on the second lap and held it for the next two laps before he blew his motor on the fourth. Ken Whetham, unable to miss the oil spill spun into the side of the Wrighlesworth car, but was able to continue in the race.

TOSS UP

When the race was re-started, Tom Neil grabbed the lead with Larry Cowan in second spot. It was a toss up to see which one would keep the lead the rest of the race. Neil held on to take the win with Cowan second and Whetham third.

ECKERICH WINS

The eight cylinder feature went off without an accident or even a spinout. Last year's champion Murray Wallace grabbed the lead on the first lap, but Hugh Eckerich, who started in the scratch position, started to challenge for the lead on the fourth lap. Eckerich finally snuck past Wallace on the seventh and captured the first eight cylinder feature of the season. Joe Woods gave Wallace a real run for second spot, but finally had to settle for third.

KNOCKED OUT

Larry Majury unfortunately was knocked out of the day's action in the very first six cylinder heat, when a car driven by Tom Neil collided with Majury's forcing Larry's car into the fence at number 4 turn. The car was damaged severely, but Larry was not damaged and will be ready to go again next week.

Results —

6 cylinder heat: Larry Cowan, George Wrighlesworth, Ken Whetham.

8 cylinder semi: Ken Whetham, George Wrighlesworth; Larry Cowan.

6 cylinder feature: Tom Neil; Larry Cowan; Ken Whetham.

8 cylinder heat: Joe Woods; Lawrence Majury, Hugh Eckerich.

Hancocks Have The Secret If It's Rainbows You Want

Flowers are blooming, trees are out in leaf; the lilac bushes are out in bloom; so spring must be officially here.

In contrast to this a short time ago the ice field was still along the shore east of Craigleith Park on Georgian Bay, much snow was also seen along the river banks and in the fields. The latter is probably more ice than snow.

The big rainbow spawning run is still on and will be at least until this column goes to press.

The small creeks are quite low as of now, but the big rivers like the Beaver, Nottawasaga, Big Head and the Saugenee are still discharging a large volume of water.

ANGLERS BUSY

The big rainbow are still keeping the anglers busy at Thornbury. Fantastic stories, such as broken lines, long drawn out battles in fast water, and remarks such as, "I lost my fish, but what was it a big rainbow or a monster Coho salmon."

Despite the fast water and crowded fishing conditions many good rainbows up to 15 lbs. or better have been caught.

One thing is for sure, when one hooks into a big one he is sure of lots of help, because lines are pulled in and huge landing nets are produced.

Most experienced fishermen prefer to net their own fish, but on the turbulent part of the Beaver River, or any other similar river, one can't be too proud.

BIG CATCH

Well — It looks like the Hancock boys have done it again. On May 8 Walter played and landed a 15 lb. male; a 12 lb. male, an 8 lb. female and a 6 lb. male rainbow.

Brian's catch was a 10 lb. male, an 8 lb. female and a 4 lb. male. The Beaver River was also kind to Ricky Hancock. It produced a 13 lb., 10 lb., two of 8 lbs. all females and a 5 lb. male. They were all clean fish.

Also in the party were Keith

Preston of Glen Williams, who was rewarded with an 8 lb. female. Al Gibson another member of the party landed a 10 lb. male.
I believe Walter has pictures of the catch in colour. Unlucky me, I was up Thornbury way for the weekend and missed the picture jack-pot when they came home.
Yes, you guessed it, I was making a movie film and taking stills.

ROE WORKS

The previous Wednesday, I was also at Thornbury and other waters with Lorne Fletcher of Acton. Lorne took a nice 7 lb. female on roe. (I have this on film, also other action pictures from Thornbury).

In our travels that day we met Jon Chisholm, who provided me with some good still pictures and several feet of movie film, of 2 big deep-bodied hookjawed male rainbow of over 11 lbs. and a nice 10 lb. female.
