In Memoriam

ANTHONY — In loving memory of a dear husband, dad and granddad, Frederick Anthony who died May 30, 1970.

His weary hours and days of pain,
His troubled nights are past;
And in our aching hearts we know
He has found sweet rest at last.
But still the empty chair
Reminds us of the face, the smile,
Of one who once sat there.

— Ever remembered by his wife Ethel, daughter Eleanor, son-in-law Bill and grandchildren.

BOYD — In loving memory of our dear mother, Sarah Elizabeth, who passed away May 23, 1969.

What we would give if we could say,
Hello, Mother, in the same old way,
To hear your voice, see your smile,
To sit with you and chat awhile
So you who have a Mother,
Cherish her with care,
For you'll never know the heart-ache
Till you see her vacant chair.

— Always remembered by daughter Vera and son-in-law Ken.

HENDERSON — In loving memory of Anne Henderson who passed away May 20, 1968.
"I'll lend you for a little time, a child of mine," God said.
For you to love the while she lives, and mourn for her when she's dead.
It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three,
But will you, till I call her back, take care of her for me?
She'll bring her charms to gladden you, and should her stay be brief,
You'll have some happy memories as solace for your grief."

RAYNER — In memory of a beloved husband, father and grandfather, Orval Rayner who left us so suddenly, May 25, 1970.

It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone,
For part of me went with you when God called you home.

— Loved and remembered by wife Alice, daughter Linda, son-in-law Ron, grandchildren Eileen, Brenda and David.

RAYNER — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Orval Rayner, who passed away on May 25, 1970 — Always remembered by Bob, Peg, Charlie and Mike.

SHELBOURNE — In loving memory of Mrs. Fred Shelbourne (Mary), who passed away at Milton Centennial Manor, May 28, 1970. It's just a little but it means a lot.
