This was sure Mardell's night as Diane Marshall pitched a great game and Laura Russell hit a grand slam along with great defense played by Kathy Black. Homers by Kathy Allen and Christine Pomeroy.

The Hunters 23
Caruso's Fruit Market 7

The Hunters had another terrific win this week with Barb Harris and Susan Maveal defeating pitcher Linda Middleton. Homers were hit by Barb Harris, Susan Maveal, Sharon Greenslade, Chris Irwin and Shelley White for Hunters and Cathy Given, Janet Ollivier and Noreen Atkinson for Carusos.

nis Pomeroy for Zenith and Rose Mario Mella for Superior Foods.

Copeland's Esso Extras 18
Pete's Girls 4

Well Copeland's sure ate their Wheaties again this week with winning pitcher Jan Inglis, being chosen as star by the umpire and Toni Servos as star for Pete's Girls as she also hit a homer.

It was especially brought to my attention by guess who, that assistant commissioner Mary Cooper hit a home run, and "that's the truth!"

Glen Sparkles Gives Norval First Loss

Three runs in the ninth inning enabled Glen Williams to push their game with Norval into extra frames and an eventual victory for them Sunday in an intercounty Fastball League game in the Glen park. About 300 watched the match, the first Glen-Norval clash of the young season.

The 4-3 outcome was Norval's first loss in six starts. They currently share first place.

Norval developed their first run when pitcher John Holtby knocked Paul Robinson home. Two more in the fifth came about when Bill Sykes' double scored Korzack and Holtby.

Tim Haines, B. Craig and pitcher Dave Farley crossed the plate in the Glen's ninth inning uprising.

Teeter brought the winning run to the plate in the 12th on Bill Zillo's hit.

The Glen had 13 hits to Norval's nine. The game also featured some spectacular plays in the field notably Rick Peavoy's grab which robbed Jim Frank of a home run.

Tuesday night, Norval got hot again and downed Fergus 5-3 with Holtby on the rubber getting his sixth victory. Sykes had the big hit, a first inning double which produced two runs.

Jason Field calls it "logical" and "natural" that a town with an industrial fastball league and players in the intercounty Fastball loop should have a minor softball setup. Field organized the leagues for seven to 14 year olds which officially opened their schedules Saturday.

Promoting the new circuit and putting a lot of his own time into getting it rolling is Georgetown's Chief Constable Harley Lowe. He was the batter when Mayor Bill Smith officially launched the minor softball set-up in a brief ceremony at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at the fairgrounds. Field is a sergeant with the Georgetown police department.

"This is the first time to my knowledge that we have ever had minor softball here" Field told The Herald. "We were late starting, but registration forms went out through the schools and the response was even better than we expected since registration for baseball and soccer wound up weeks ago," he said.

He said merchants and industries have been co-operative in providing the necessary equipment.

Registration was free but 50 cents was collected from each boy to pay for insurance.

FIVE MAIN TYPES

The main type of poisonous snakes found in the United States are rattlesnakes, water moccasin, copperhead, harlequin snake and the Sonoran coral snake.

Police Chief Harley Lowe lets me go by as he stands in to officially open minor softball here Saturday morning. That familiar face behind the mitt belongs to Mayor Bill Smith, while umpire Jerry Perkins makes sure it's all done by the book.

Senior Soccer Falcons Drop Second League Match

Georgetown Falcons suffered a second straight loss in their senior soccer league match with Streetsville played at Cedarvale on Saturday.

Streetsville opened with a spirited attack and Taylor made a good save on the outside left. The play switched to the other end and the Falcons went close on several occasions, but failed to find the mark.

On the few occasions that either team created a scoring chance the goalkeepers were equal to the task. Taylor in particular was very sharp in the late stages of the first half. The Falcons continually juggled their forward line in an effort to instill some scoring power but it was the visitors who scored first on a 30 yard

Five Share Cup Draw Prize Money

The $750 top prize money in the Georgetown Lions' annual Stanley Cup draw was sliced five ways this year. Ken Nash, Doug Richardson, George Louth, Jim Powell and Bob Coiller each had a piece of the ticket with the winning time. All are from Georgetown.

The rest of the $250 in prizes was shared by David Macauley of Brampton, James R. Ware of Acton, Jerry Green of Port Credit and Emme Keeler of Georgetown.

Streetsville continued to press and following a defensive error Couto scored midway through the half.

The Falcons stormed back and missed three clear cut chances to score before Schipper scored on a perfect set-up from inside left Fraye with 3 minutes left. Best Falcons on the day were Taylor, Fraye, and 2 full backs Singleton and Devries.

New Season Begins For Women Bowlers

A new season for lady members of the lawn bowling club opened on June 1 when 18 members held a short business meeting, followed by an afternoon of bowling.

The new president, Mrs. Wilbert Cleave welcomed members and there was a discussion on tournaments. A moment of silence was observed for Mrs. George Muckart, who with her husband was the victim of an auto accident last winter.

The women bowl, every Tuesday at the bowling green at the Edith and William Street corner, and welcome new members to the club.
