ROGER SMITH
Roger Smith received his Bachelor of Arts degree at the University of Toronto convocation last Friday. A Trinity student he took honours in his course, specializing in geography. He plans to enter Ontario College of Education in preparation for a teaching career. Following graduation, his mother entertained at Somewhere Else, with guests including Rev'd and Mrs. Eric Mills, now of Hamilton. Mr. Mills is the former rector of St. George's Anglican Church here.

ESQUESING COUNCIL BRIEFS
• Continuing his running battle with Esquesing on the conditions of the roads, Leon Dearsley, Confederation Street, Glen Williams, asked council last week why he had received no reply to his previous letter complaining about the condition of Confederation Street.
• Following the recommendation of the Committee of Adjustment, Esquesing council upped the separation fee from $300 to $500. There was no discussion, but Cr. Willfrid Leale opposed the move, and Reeve Tom Hill commented, "I hope there's a good explanation for this."
• Council agreed to lend snow fencing to both the Hornby Ball Park and the Georgetown Agricultural Society, with both parties held responsible for its return in good condition.
• While no exact date has been set as yet, for the public meeting to discuss the Official Plan, Planning Board told council it would probably be in the latter part of June, in Stewarttown school, with a member of the Planning Board and the planning consultant in attendance.
