

Clean-Up, Outdoor Worship Follows Church Barbecue

Mr. and Mrs. Val Stein of Georgetown enjoy the chicken halves barbecued by Maple Lodge Farms Saturday.

Norval United Church chicken barbecue held at Maple Lodge Farms on Saturday June 19th was a very successful event again this year with all groups in the church working hard to keep everything running smoothly. The weatherman co-operated in lovely weather for the day. Assembly line tables were set up for the chicken, salads, pie or cake, and tea or coffee, which were carried on trays to picnic tables on the lawn where the meal was enjoyed while listening to music. Many find the visit with friends very enjoyable while others prefer the carry out service and eat at home.

Mr. & Mrs. L. May, Mr. & Mrs. Jack May and family, and Mr. & Mrs. Bob May and family, owners of Maple Lodge Farms, all worked hard towards the success of the day.

The committee in charge of the barbecue were Bob May, chairman, Allen Castle, assistant; Mrs. Gwen Laidlaw, Secretary; Mr. & Mrs. Ken Reid and Mr. & Mrs. Earl Wilson, advertising and tickets; Paul Johnson, barbecuing the chicken; Social Committee, salads, pies, cakes, tea and coffee; Albert Eamon and Dave Dunlop the canteen booth of pop, etc.; Earl MacArthur and Garnett Laidlaw arrangements; Gordon Laidlaw and Allen Burke, entertainment.

On Sunday morning it was clean up duty followed by lunch and an outdoor worship service held on the lawn conducted by Rev. R. Walter Ridley.
