

Branch 120 Assisting In Glen Cairn Dedication

BY RALPH HAWES
 Since becoming active as Zone B7's Deputy Zone Commander, we have been called upon to visit most of the branches in the zone to assist with nominations, elections, and installation of officers.
 Because of these many visits we have learned anew the meaning of comradeship. At each branch we have visited there has been courtesy and comradeship in abundance.
 We believe we are correct when we state that we doubt that any other organization is based on such comradeship which extends from coast to coast.
 It is with these thoughts in mind we urge veterans and ex-service men and women to give the Legion a try. Visit 120, we believe you will like it there.

UNVEILING
 Branch 120 is committed to take part in the unveiling ceremony of the newly erected monument which is located on the river bank opposite Preston's Store.
 The branch will assist and participate with the parade which will move off from the Anglican Church at 2 p.m. Sunday June 27. The Branch Pipe Band and Cadets along with members of the Branch and Auxiliary will endeavour to swell the ranks of the parade.
 The citizens of Glen Williams can be justly proud of this ultra modern, spectacular masterpiece of stone cutting and facing which now graces the village.
 We do not know who designed the monument but he, along with it will long be remembered.

KNOWHOW
 Two branches in Zone B7 certainly know how to do it up when the occasion arises. Action had their annual barbecue on Saturday. The huge roasts of beef were barbecued slowly from 8 a.m. until served at 8:30 p.m. It melted in the mouth.
 Approximately two hundred members and ladies enjoyed the meal which was followed by a dance. All of this took place on the branch parking lot.
 Meanwhile not too far away at Erin Branch 442, the powers that be were preparing a Mortgage Burning Ceremony which was scheduled for 11 p.m.
 When the moment arrived, David Capperauld, 2nd Vice President Ontario Command, put the torch to the mortgage, an action which was well applauded.
RESPONDED POORLY
 Although the weather was perfect last Sunday the Branch Membership responded poorly to the appeal to them to attend the Decoration Day Service.
 Lt. C. Cousens F.O.F. Bull and nine die hard air cadets were on hand. The Branch Pipe Band, and the Branch and Auxiliary Colour Parties, assisted by Branch 15 Brampton Colour Party were all there ready for Membership on Parade, well!
 The Branch Pipe Band excelled themselves. Parade Marshal Pat Chamberlain was his usual smart and debonaire self.
 It is hoped that Branch 120 will make a better showing at Glen Williams next Sunday.
BRANCH BITS
 Back at the Branch the car club winners were, W. Ostrander, D. Cartwright, M. Tarzwell, J. Kennedy and D. Davies.
 Steak winners, J. Gilchrist, P. Chaplin, J. Esplin, W. Telford, L. Boyd, A. Bulmer, B. Tarafon, B. Sheppard.
 Veterans and ex-service personnel and their dependents please note that Mr. C.F. Wall, Service Bureau Officer will be at Branch 120 on Wednesday June 30 from 3 p.m. on. Please feel free to visit the branch at that time if you have problems.
 For Branch Golfers, Zone Golf at Wildwood July 16th. For more particulars see Hank.

Bike Riders' Carelessness Causes Concern
 Careless bicycle riding around town is causing concern among councillors. Thursday night at committee meeting, Cr. Harry Levy raised the subject and found general agreement.
 Cr. Donna Denison asked how much was being done on safety in the schools.
 Mayor Bill Smith pointed out there were regular visits by the police who gave safety talks and showed films.

 Cr. E. Hyde made the novel suggestion that school children do their own policing, and have a court in school to judge the offenders.
 The clerk was instructed to write the schools telling of their concern over the way children are operating their bicycles.
