

July Swimming Lessons Draw 380 for Classes

Instructor Debbie Young helps pre-schooler David Cillis get used to the water, as he learns to swim in Georgetown's community pool. David is one of several youngsters who will enjoy water sports in later life, thanks to their lessons.

Three hundred and eighty swimmers ranging from pre-schoolers to adults have registered for the July session of swimming lessons at the Georgetown swimming pool. For the second year, classes for four and five year olds are being conducted on Saturday mornings. 35 pre-schoolers are being introduced to the water through games and small group instruction. The pre-beginners class has 80 registered, the beginners class has 70, the pre-juniors 40, juniors 40, intermediates 40, seniors 30, and adults 25. In addition, 20 are taking the Royal Lifesaving courses, which include the bronze medallion, bronze cross, and the award of merit.

Pre-schooler Anne Hunt likes the flutterboard session, one of the ways young swimming aspirants learn to be at home in the water.

Sunday Dinner Overcooked

An overcooked Sunday dinner, sent firemen out to Limehouse when a neighbour saw smoke curling out under the eaves. The C. De Forests had gone out and left the roast in the oven, but had also locked up the house, so firemen had to force the door, before reaching the blazing dinner. Saturday morning, workmen accidentally set off the sprinkler system at Gage Stationery Ltd., on Todd Road, sending the firemen out. Wednesday morning, firemen were called to stand by and wash gas off the road when a truck leaked fuel onto the highway in front of Georgetown Market Centre.

Youth Injured, Motorcycle Wrecked

An 18 year old Glen Williams youth was taken to Peel Memorial hospital and later transferred to Toronto Western Hospital with injuries suffered in an accident Tuesday night. Kelly Symons, 28 Glen Crescent Drive, received a broken pelvis and internal injuries. He was proceeding south on Mountainview Rd. near John Street on his motorcycle when it was in collision with a northbound car driven by David Von Solkema, R.R.5. Losing control of the cycle, he ran into another northbound car driven by Archie Pollock, 76 Rexway Drive. The $1700 cycle was completely wrecked and damage estimates to the other two vehicles totalled $1300. Other motor accidents during the week were of a relatively minor nature. On Friday, cars driven by Ronald White, 56 McGillivray Cresc. and Robert Barless, 29 Windsor Rd. collided near the Shelley-Windsor corner, with $200 damage to Mr. White's vehicle. $285 was the damage estimate when cars driven by John McCosh, 28 McIntyre Cresc. and Nicole Cote, Don Mills, met in Georgetown Market Centre. And on Sunday there was minor damage in an accident at Maple and Guelph. Drivers were David Puckering, 22 Academy Rd. and Charles Ratford, Galt.

Instructor Bob Sargent lends support while pre-schooler Paul d'entremont churns up the water in his swimming class. Paul is one of 80 youngsters learning to swim.
