Social & Personal

The friends and neighbours of Mrs. Sam Muddle, 147 Town Line, Milton, are sorry to hear she is ill in hospital.

Mrs. John Elliott, 48 Hewson Crescent, is home from a month's visit in England. She joined relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott of Cornwall, N.Y. in New York City and flew over from there. One highlight of their visit was to attend the 90th birthday party of her husband's aunt, Miss Mary Elliott of Yelling, Hunts.

A surprise birthday party was held in honour of Mrs. E. Ingles of Acton on July 24th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Telford McDowell of 30 Raylawn Crescent. Thirty guests attended from Georgetown, Acton, Limehouse and Port Credit. Two sons and their families, Al and Ken Ingles of Coquitlan and South Burnaby BC were unable to attend but phoned during the evening to extend their best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson and their two boys, John and Samuel from Belfast, Northern Ireland are the guests this week at the home of Rev. & Mrs. Jack McCallum on Marilyn Crescent. Mrs. Williamson is a sister of Pastor McCallum. The Williamsons spent the first part of their holiday with Mr. & Mrs. Bill McCallum of Weston. They are thoroughly enjoying this, their first visit to Canada and will be leaving on Saturday to return home to Ireland.

Mr. and Mrs. David Williams travelled by air to the Banff and Jasper area following their marriage July 10. The wedding of Dave and Irene (formerly Niven) took place at the home of the groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Williams, R.R.1, with the Rev. Ralph Williams of Rockwood United Church officiating. He is Dr. Williams' brother. Lois (Mrs. Terry Wichman) of London attended her mother and Bruce gave his mother in marriage. Donald was best man for his father. Guests attending the wedding were immediate members of the families.

There are about 2,500 pounds of nickel in the four engines of a modern jetliner.

Social & Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington (Duke) Wilson, 21 Union Street and Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Kwei of Guelph were in Chicago to attend the 'summer national' bridge tournament. Mr. Wilson teamed with Dr. Kwei to place first in one session, and playing with Mrs. Kwei, took a fourth another day. With other players, he also had a second, two thirds and two fifths. It was one of the largest tournaments ever held, with as many as 1000 pairs playing at some sessions. Famous bridge names like Blackwood, Goren and Jacoby were present at the tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. William McNally, 22 Market Street, returned home last week-end from a western trip. They drove to
