Autobody Boys Win Lone Softball Tilt

Two Georgetown Police Minor Softball Teams gains wins by default Saturday. Boehmers took two points from Baltimore Aircoil, and Ray Whyte's Gulf took two from Standard Products without playing.

Fred's Autobody 30 Pomeroy Sports 1

Pomeroy's have been strong all summer but they just couldn't connect against Fred's Auto Body. But even if it was one sided, it was the only game played.

In the Senior League, Smith and Stone goes against EFCCO at 9 a.m.; and Gage Stationery meets Yoder at 10 a.m.

The Junior leaguers are 7 - 10 years old, and Seniors 11 - 14. Dennis Bacon and Jim Sargent look all-star teams from the two loops to Grand Valley Sunday for exhibition games. Georgetown minor softballers were the short ends of 11-9 and 15-13 scores respectively but showed promise.

Treadless tires are fair weather friends. They let you down if conditions aren't ideal.

NEWSWEATERS

In the Senior League, Smith and Stone won by default over Gage Stationery.

Now that summer is almost over the league officials expect to see an end to defaulted games as more boys show up to get back into the action. And added incentive will be the new sweaters which have just arrived.

Parents will find it worthwhile to stay and watch their boys play instead of just dropping them off for the games.

FIVE GAMES

The schedule for Saturday August 21 has three Junior League games - Standard Products vs Fred's Auto Body at 9 a.m.; Boehmers vs Pomeroy Sports at 10 a.m.; and Baltimore Aircoil vs Ray Whyte's Gulf at 11 a.m.

Kinsmen Girls' Softball — Downpour Washes Out Three Junior Jousts

Three Junior League games rained out Tuesday August 10 will be played at the convenience of the coaches, players and umpires. Caruso's were to have met Kinette Cruisers, Mardell's were pitted against Murray Motors, and Pauline's Flowers were matched with Superior Food.

Georgetown Upholstery 16 Zenith Tool 3

Laura Wilkes' pitching earned the Upholstery hurler the first star. Sharon Moores was a close second on the strength of her four for four record at the plate including a home run. Georgetown Upholstery played their usual good game to win this one which was rained out Tuesday night.

Dairy Queen 20 The Hunters 16

Linda George pitched her regular steady game in leading the Queens with two home runs, and was picked a game star. Home runs by the Hunters came from Susan Maveal, Joy Middleton and Timmy King who hit two.

Cycle and Sports 13 Shoprite 9

A third inning rally by Shoprite produced six runs to tie the game 7 - 7. Cycle and Sports recovered in time to go on to win. Game star was Patty Barber of Cycle and Sports.

SENIOR GIRLS

Young's Pharmacy 23 Cable Jets 17

Jennifer Linton, third baseman for Young's was the umpire's pick for game star. Marion Vlietman of the san's team also played a strong game on the mound making several key putouts. Pitchers for the Jets were Karen Monroe and Margo Butler.

Blue Giant 27 Fobert's 5

Though not strong enough to match the giants in this game, Fobert's will make a good showing with some experience. This is an all-rookie team. Two Giants home runs were hit by Diane Fournier, one each by Vicki Robbins, Gail Curry and Connie Allan who was also the game star.

Leone's Hair-Styling 23 Magnuson's Insurance 16 Laura Bodnar hit two more home runs with Sharon Barclay adding another for Magnuson's but this was still not enough to match Leone's four homers belted by Leanne Gilson, Barb Curry, and Shelly Bond. Leanne Gilson was chosen as game star for good fielding and batting. An honorable mention to Lynn Anthony who hit five for five.

LADIES LEAGUE

Copeland's Esso Extra 16 Barragers' 11

Linda Edwards was the umpire's pick for star of this fun game. Roxanne Sweezy and Cathy Danylchuk hit homes for Barragers' while Marsha Jones and Linda Edwards did likewise for the winners.

Sunnucks 18 Pete's Girls 5

A home run and her usual good fielding earned Clary Vander Byl the game star. A home run by Shirley Saunders at the end of the fourth inning did not quite produce the necessary incentive for Pete's Girls. Main comment - "It was cold!!!"
