

Council Tired Of Tires — Ban Them

At their regular meeting Monday night Esqueving Township council placed a ban on rubber tires at their Fourth Line dump to put an end to a problem which was becoming a worry.

An Acton man, Ron Robson, is in the used tire business. He collects trade-ins from a tire chain's stores in this part of the province, and sorts through the

If you live in Esqueving Township and you have some old tires you have been meaning to take to the dump forget it.

Make them into backyard swings, half bury them to make a fancy driveway entrance, or use them as front yard planters - but save yourself the trip to the Esqueving dump. They're not wanted there either.

discards for those which are suitable for recapping. The rest go into the Esqueving dump.

The result after seven months of this process is hundreds upon hundreds of bald rubber tires on the Esqueving sanitation landfill site. Esqueving cannot legally burn them, and there are too many to be buried.

"We don't want any more of them - period." Reeve Tom Hill told Robson at Monday's council meeting. "There is just no way we will allow any more rubber tires at that dump."

"You're taking other communities' garbage and using our dump to dispose of it," Councilor Coxie charged.

Robson said he would attempt to make a deal with a rubber company to haul away those tires which he can't use and which otherwise would have ended up on the dump.

The clerk was instructed to notify the dump attendant of the ban.

Hope To Coast To Grand Prix Victory — Adams Photography

When the GT Motors Sport Club holds their Grand Prix for Soap Box Cars next month, Greg and Gary Thompson will be there. Like many Georgetown youngsters they are already well along with their entry in the September 26 derby to be held on the Maple Avenue hill.

With five weeks left there is still lots of time for boys and dads to put together a winning gravity-powered car. Information and specifications are available from Lou Broadfield, 877-6485; Barry Hamilton, 877-9931 and Bob Horton, 877-4524
