GEORGETOWN DRIVER CASHES IN AT CRASH-IN

A Georgetown driver took half of the $600 prize money available to the survivor of the Labour Day Wreckarama at Pinecrest Speedway, Monday. Brian Hill, who earlier has picked up $30 for winning a qualifying heat rammed the last opponent a little too hard with his battered '53 Chev in the big wreck'em of the day. When Hill and foe could not disengage themselves they were each awarded half of the $500 first and $100 second prize money. "That's $440 I've made so far this season in wreck'em's," Hill told The Herald. "And Monday's was the first big payoff since 1967".

Battered 1953 Chevy stayed together in Labour Day Wreckarama at Pinecrest Speedway and earned Brian Hill $330.
