

Limehouse

Rev. Nicholson
Guest Speaker
At Limehouse

Rev. David Nicholson was guest preacher at the 110th anniversary services at the Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday. He had two interesting up-to-date sermons, "The Church of the 20th Century Worship" and "The Church of the 20th Century, Its Witness". Miss Mary Lou Brown and Mrs. Wm. Karn sang lovely duets and the choir, directed by Mrs. Bert Benton sang well rendered anthems. Mrs. Roughley was at the organ. Rev. F. N. Young received new choir furnishings from Mr. A. C. Patterson on behalf of the congregation. He also received and dedicated a new communion table and chair from Mr. Gordon Price and Mrs. F. J. Shortill, which they gave in memory of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Price, two faithful former members of the church. A number of former members of the congregation came from Toronto and other good distances to both services. The W. A. ladies served refreshments in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gunn were received as new members of Limehouse Presbyterian Church when Rev. F. N. Young conducted communion services on September 19.

Rev. W. J. Lane of Bow Island, Alberta, who retired this year after thirty years in the United Church ministry in Saskatchewan and Alberta, has been visiting relatives in the neighborhood. His niece, Mrs. Walter Linham held open house on Sunday afternoon when a good number of cousins and others called to meet Bill.

Congratulations to Fred Gishy and Susan Rodie, who were married in Knox Church, Georgetown by Rev. F. N. Young on Saturday. The reception was held in the Music Centre, Acton, the Limehouse W. I. catering.

Limehouse W. A. ladies had a busy day with their food booth at Acton Fall Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Renneck of Orangeville, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Price, and family of Islington and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McIntyre were among visitors with Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Shortill on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henry of Midland, just back from a motoring holiday to the East Coast and Tanya who has been with her grandparents were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Patterson on the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Sharpe and Miss Coleena Sharpe of Toronto, Rev. David Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Greenlees of Campbellville, and Rev. Wm. J. Lane of Bow Island, Alberta were Sunday visitors with the Bentons.

Limehouse Presbyterians regret the leaving of their minister for ten years, Rev. F. N. Young. He has accepted a call to Duff's Church and Crief near Guelph. Our good wishes go with him. Various Presbyterian ministers will preach during the weeks to come, two being Rev. Ralph Kendall of Bramalea on October 3 and Rev. James Sutherland, home on furlough from Formosa on October 10.

—Mrs. A. Benton

Brothertons In Oct. 2 Air Race

The flying Brothertons of Limehouse are off again on another air race. This race, October 2, is known as the Michigan Small race, and is for women pilots. They can fly solo or take a male or female co-pilot as passenger. Barbara elected to take husband Tom, also a pilot. The race starting from Freeland, Michigan, is sponsored by the Michigan chapter of the "Ninety-nines", an international organization of licensed women pilots. The exact course of the race will be revealed only after all contestants' planes have been impounded the night before the race.

$1,000 PRIZE
Prizes totalling $1,000 and trophies will be awarded. The Paul Bunyan Travelling Trophy will go to the first place winner. The Piper Comanche will be piloted by two seasoned flyers, pilot Barbara with 570 hours and co-pilot Tom with 2,500 hours. Both have flown in a number of races in the past.
