ODEON THEATRE

AN OPEN LETTER TO INTERESTED READERS

It was a long time coming, but it finally happened. Somebody finally made a family film which can be enjoyed by the entire family.

You don't have to send your children to the Saturday matinee, you can take them to the movies yourself, and enjoy the film with them.

The Railway Children hopefully is the first in a long line of family films — true entertainment for everyone.

If we are to believe what we read, the public has rebelled against the violence, sex and nudity so prevalent in today's films.

Theatre managers have attempted to book as many "family" type films as they can. But their receipts tell the tale. When a family film is playing the crowds often stay away.

Naturally they book what the public wants. If people really mean what they say; if the public really wants old-fashioned, "clean" entertainment, it is entirely in the public's hands to get it.

W. (Bum) Blondell, Manager.
