

FOCUS ON ZELLER'S OPENING

The new, huge parking lot added to the east end of Georgetown Market is blanketed with shoppers' cars as the opening day crowd pour into Zeller's County Fair.

The Skillet is an oasis for shoppers at Zellers County Fair.

Ashgrove News

Mrs. Mabel Carlisle of Guelph spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Patterson.

Mr. Preban Donald Gustavsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustavsen of the Sixth Line, who is a student at Trent University, was hospitalized and later released following a motor cycle accident. He received cuts, bruises and burns when the machine rolled down a bank from an old railway line. We hope that he has completely recovered.

The Steady Readies girls met in Limehouse Memorial Hall on Saturday. Roll call was "Have you a first aid kit and where is it kept?" Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Hargrave of the St. John Ambulance, Milton, were present to talk to the club about first aid. After their meeting the girls enjoyed cookies and lemonade.

Mr. Alf Spence conducted a quite successful sale of household furnishings for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mather on Saturday. We regret their removal from the neighbourhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Benton entertained the Quinton and Benton families on Sunday, celebrating little John's third birthday of October 23.

Rev. John Murray of Knox Church, Milton, preached at Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday. Mrs. Murray accompanied him. On October 31 Rev. John McFride of Brampton will be with us.

The W.A. had a complete sell out of food at a booth at the Mather sale on Saturday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson on the arrival of Kyle David on October 16, a first grand child for Mr. and Mrs. Neil Anderson. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Burrell on the arrival of Shannon Marie, a little sister for Christopher on October 17th. Mrs. Jas. Findlay of Milton is the great-grandmother.

—Mrs. A. W. Benton

Perfect Cruiser

A model "Police Car of Tomorrow" was introduced recently in Chicago, the Ontario Safety League reports. The equipment includes baby-delivery implements and disposable diapers.

Other less personal equipment includes: a front-mounted push bar for moving disabled vehicles off the road; two fixed alley lights, facing left and right, to light up the sides of streets; large identification number on roof, for police helicopter identification; electronic computer for clocking the speed of other cars; a "hooligan" tool for prying open doors and windows of disabled vehicles; riot gear; plastic mouth-to-mouth resuscitator.

As ancient Numidia, Algeria became a Roman colony at the close of the Punic Wars.

Limehouse News

Let me tell you a little secret; I love the autumn days, The tang in the early morning air; and the hills all blue with haze; Stay longer with us autumn; don't give way soon to winter's cold. I love the mellow sunshine; and the leaves all yellow and gold. God's world clothed in vivid colors, is so beautiful, please stay.

Hallowe'en and children's pranks, they're counting every day. To the treats they hope to get, or the tricks they'll play. Hallowe'en and pumpkin pies, and the treats we have in store, for the noisy girls and boys, Who'll come knocking at our door, Trick or treat they'll say, Some there are who'll just wear masks, and some wear costumes gay; and if you don't shell out, you'll surely have to pay.

Now though they sometimes bother you, may God bless everyone, and guide them as they travel on, into the night for their fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Wilson and little daughter Brenda motored to Manotick last weekend to visit Mr. and Mrs. Graham Reeve and their sons Brent and Blair.

We are all glad when the end of October gets here because it means we can change the clocks back one hour. That hour that you lost back in April, refreshing relief is in sight, they're returning one hour of slumber, to all of the weary Sunday night. Standard time will be back.
