

Hatley-Mills Vows in St. John's Church

Flowers and decorations in St. John's Anglican Church on Sunday were donated in thanks by Mr. and Mrs. James Jefferson Hatley, whose marriage took place on Saturday afternoon, October 30. Canon J. E. Maxwell officiated. Mrs. Hatley is the former Judith Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mills, 70 Maple Ave. W. and a member of St. John's Church.

Hallow'een was enjoyed by a number of the local children who, dressed in their various costumes, visited their neighbors for trick or treat.

Unfortunately, due to those who delighted in throwing eggs and tomatoes at passing vehicles, it soon became unsafe for the younger children and many headed to the safety of home before completing their rounds.

One group took great delight in letting off firecrackers for several hours on the cemetery hill.

The cemetery, as some of our readers are aware, is a very old one and for a number of years was neglected, due to the fact that many who are buried there have few, or no living relatives.

Within the last few years, a great deal of time, effort and money has been spent to restore it to a pleasant and orderly state. Brush was cut, trees trimmed and the whole area levelled and seeded. If any readers are interested in old cemeteries, by all means visit this one and read some of the history of the pioneers.

We trust that some of the young folk who have used the cemetery in the past as a playground will give this some thought before using it as a bridal path for their horses, a raceway for motor bikes, a skidoo trail or as a launching pad for firecrackers.

In the Coming Events column you will read all the particulars of the annual bazaar, which for 21 years has been held on the first Saturday in November. We trust you will attend and enjoy the activities.

A confirmation service will be held in St. John's Sunday morning at 11.00 when Canon Maxwell will present his candidates to Bishop Bagnall.

—Mrs. C. A. Grant.
