

Informative Program as W.I. Branches Meet in Convention

by Mrs. Frank Brown
Helen P.R.O.

Mrs. Howard Weicker, President of Guelph Area, welcomed 275 delegates to the 75th Anniversary Annual Convention in the absence of the Minister of Dublin United Church, the clerk of Session, Mr. Cook, gave the welcome.

Mrs. Weicker, in her President's address spoke on the theme "Accent on Inspiration and Communication". She stressed that there should be more visiting between the executives and the branch institutes. Potential new members should be informed of the aims and objectives of the Women's Institute. A lively singing was ably conducted by Mrs. W. Knapp several times during the sessions.

President of the F.W.I.O. Mrs. Austin Zoeller, reported that the W.I. 75th Anniversary fund to raise $50,000.00 for McDonald Institute extension was now completed. The W.I. having achieved their goal. This is one example of working together. Mrs. Zoeller urged each branch to participate in the 75th Anniversary celebrations as well as sending a delegate to the luncheon at the Royal York Hotel Canadian Room in February. Standing Committee programs have been slightly changed to keep up with modern trend and the new Handbook is in the printer's hands and books to be finished in the late fall. Mrs. D. Bannister reported 18 members in the Norval Jr. Institute, keeping busy. This is the only Jr. Institute in the Guelph Area.

The Public Relation Officer, Mrs. Fried, reported that 122 branches in the Guelph Area donated $30,015.00 to various projects and causes, this being $285.00 more than last year.

255 DELEGATES

Miss M. McGhee, Associate Principal of Centralia College of Agricultural Technology brought greetings and explained some of the opportunities offered in their courses. This school is located 25 miles north of London in Huron Industrial park.

The 265 delegates gathered in the recreation centre of the church for a banquet. After the introduction of the head table guests, the ladies adjourned upstairs for the balance of the program. Mr. and Mrs. R. Bule of Kitchener spoke and showed slides of life in the Arctic. Mr. Bule was superintendent of schools for the federal government in the Northwest Territories and Mrs. Bule taught school in Inuvik. Mr. Ron Goodwin and his five daughters, ages 3 to 15, played and sang several delightful selections.

Mrs. N. Jamieson opened the Wednesday morning session and introduced Miss Helen McKecher, Director of Home Economics Service, Dept. of Agriculture and Food, who brought greetings from the Department and introduced the five Economists. Miss McKecher gave the qualifications of a good leader such as friendliness, consideration of others, ability to lead and allot jobs with courage and inspiration and still keep your enthusiasm. Mrs. H. Wilson presented the resolutions re Violence and immoral programs on T.V. and Pollution and Recycling of waste materials. These resolutions were sustained.

GRANDEUR

Wednesday afternoon session opened with the singing of the "Hymn of all Nations". Mrs. Clarence Diamond, Public Relations Officer of F.W.I.O. gave the highlights of the 13th tri-annual convention of the A.C.-W.W. in Oslo, Norway. She said that the Norwegian climate was very changeable and was impressed by the unbelievable grandeur of the mountainous terrain and was amazed by the amount grown on the numerous one acre farms. With the use of a tape recorder and slides, she gave her impressions of the conference and people of Norway.

Mrs. George Reist, Mrs. William Makins and Mrs. R. C. Moffatt presented a short skit, "Insight into Involvement of Board Directors" stressing the need to keep the aims and objectives of the Women's Institute high. They then handed over their files to their successors.

The final afternoon session ended on a high note with smiles and giggles as Mrs. Zoeller answered queries from the question box. Mrs. Weicker wished all a safe journey home and the National Anthem brought a well spent two day conference to a close.

GRC's Role Was Bringing Interested People Together

Dear Sir:

I would like to clear up any misunderstanding regarding Saturday Kid Hockey and the G.R.C.

The article headed "Saturday Launches First G.R.C. Kid Hockey Season" could be misleading to some people in the area.

The G.R.C.'s role regarding the formation of this league was that of bringing interested people together in order that an association could be formed to direct and run House League Hockey in Georgetown and area.

This group has been formed with a temporary executive being appointed and given a vote of confidence by the coaches and managers pending final approval of a general meeting. The temporary executive consists of:

President — Rick Braisby,
Vice President — Don Jarvie.

Secretary — Sheila Broadbent.
Treasurer — Mike Mooney.
Commissioners — Bill Anderson, Bill Humphreys, Jim Hepburn, Gary Hodge, Roy Norburn, Bruce Osborn.
Executive — A. L. Ward, John Rogers.

It is this executive along with the coaches, managers, time keepers and officials that are in charge of and responsible for the new association known as "The Georgetown & District Minor Hockey Association" and not the G.R.C.

The Recreation Department will co-operate with this organization in any way possible, but it should be recognized that the Georgetown & District Minor Hockey Association is the group running House League Hockey on Saturday in Georgetown and area.

Thank you,
W.D. Collison,
Recreation Director.

MRS. EVA KACSO, Nonquon Road, Ottawa.

MRS. MARY RHODIN, Robinsdale, Inlington.

Says Mrs. Kacso, who shops for a family of six: "I'm really fussy about food but I'm always pleased with what I buy at Loblaws. I'm really satisfied. I love Loblaws meat—the beef and the chicken especially—and the variety at the meat counter is very good. I don't have to ask for special service from the butcher because he always seems to have the cuts I want out on display. I also like the fact that Loblaws keep their stores so nice and clean—and the food here always looks so fresh. That's important to me. As far as prices are concerned—I watch the ads, but I don't think any of the other food stores have better prices than Loblaws."

Mrs. Rhodin buys food for a family of five and she says, "I come to Loblaws because I find the store is kept so clean and the prices here are right—cheaper! Find than the other stores I've shopped. In fact, I find everything about Loblaws is just right for me—the prices—the quality—and the service. Loblaws meat is particularly good. It always has been, and the butcher is always happy to provide me with the special cuts my family like. But even with the personal service I find Loblaws meat prices are so low as anywhere else and the meat here seems to be fresher and tastier. Oh, I've shopped most of the different food chains but I always come back to Loblaws... because I like it better."
