

At Rotary Past President's Seminar

Guelph U., O.C.E. Students Marry At St. Andrew's

—Gordon Campbell Studio

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKay were the matron of honour. The bride's sisters, Marilyn, Dianne and Mrs. Sharon Coffin of Milton, were bridesmaids. Miss Christine Funnell, Stratford, second cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. They were gowned in full length dresses of gold and white net with daisy design over gold satin lining. Their gowns were of similar design to the bride's and had a slight train. They carried cascade bouquets of white daisies and yellow sweetheart roses accented with sprigs of gypsophila. The flower girl carried a basket of the same flowers.

Mr. James English of St. John's Newfoundland was groomsmen. Mr. Brian Wretham, Guelph, Mr. Wayne Tott, Fort Erie, and Mr. Dennis Broughton, Hamilton were ushers. The male attendants and father of the bride wore chocolate brown double breasted tuxedos and gold shirts. Receiving afterwards at Georgetown Golf and Country Club, the bride's mother wore a floor length multi-coloured blue full pant dress and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. The groom's mother wore a floor length cherry red chiffon gown with a pale pink front panel. The sleeves were full with deep cuffs and her corsage was of pink cymbidiums.

Mr. and Mrs. McKay went to a cottage on Lake Erie near Dunnville for their honeymoon. The bride travelled in a white crimplene vest and hot pants with navy topstitching, a navy and white, polyester, full sleeve, semi-fitted blouse and sash, and a floor length flowing skirt of navy crimplene, open down the front. Her corsage was of red roses.

Some Treats for the Treaters

Hallowe'en seems to be getting quieter and quieter, and the shell-out advocates smaller and cuter. Georgetown police, who increased their duty roster Saturday night in anticipation of the strange goings on which traditionally accompany All Hallow's Eve found little to attract their attention as the trick side of the trick or treat option was almost ignored completely. Adult treat dispensers, however, had some pleasant treats of their own such as Mary Ellen Tucker, Bette Anne Woods, and Angela Tucker (at right), Robert Caldwell and Colin Penson (below).

Retired Farmer T. A. Leslie Dies

A farmer most of his life near Streetsville, Thomas Andrew (T. A.) Leslie, R.R.1 Hornby, died suddenly early Tuesday morning, October 26.

In his 63rd year, he was the only son of the late T. A. Leslie and Daisy Cantelon. In 1954 he moved to the Oakville district and had just recently retired from active farming.

He leaves his wife, Marion Giffen, a daughter Mrs. Marilyn Edwards; one sister, Mrs. Norman Cook (Lily) of Cookstown and three grandchildren. A son Ronald died in 1961.

Rev. Lynne Adams of Bethel United Church conducted the funeral service Thursday at the Lee Funeral Home, Streetsville. Interment was in Streetsville Cemetery. Pallbearers were four nephews, Leslie Cook, William Cook, Paul May and Robert Wrigglesworth, Joseph Bentley, Albert Rogers, Ed Bonham, Harvey Edwards and Vern Larouche.

Choose Bedspread Winner at Euchre

Keith Webb, Norval, won the handmade bedspread on which members of Georgetown Women's Institute have been selling tickets.

Mrs. D. Livingstone made the draw at a W.I. euchre Friday evening in Esqueping Community Hall, Stewarttown. Prizes of vouchers went to Brian Dolson, Terra Cotta, and Mrs. John McNabb, R.R. 2.

Mrs. Wellington Wilson welcomed those attending the euchre and explained the rules for the game. Winners for women were Mrs. O. Robin, Mrs. C. Wilson and Mrs. E. Beeraman, low. For men, C. Wilson, Bob Dincliffe and Stephen Thoms, low.

Sandwiches and tarts were served with a cup of tea.

Norval News

Norval Presbyterian Church W.M.S. fall thanksgiving meeting was held in the church on Tuesday afternoon October 26th with the president Mrs. Sam McClure presiding.

Miss Edna Grant of Toronto gave a talk on her work with the Young St. Mission and the Harbour Lights Mission in Toronto. She was introduced by Mrs. Howard Smith.

About 25 children aged around 8 - 13 of the Junior Choir of Norval United Church enjoyed a Hallowe'en party in the church basement on Friday evening October 29th. They each brought a bag of 'dress up' clothes and assisted each other in donning various costumes borrowing items of clothing from each other. They played games, danced and had a lunch of hot dogs and pop.

The leaders of the choir were in charge of the evening, Mrs. Rosie Laidlaw, Mrs. Glen Laidlaw and Mrs. Judy Pomeroy.

The very mild weather on Saturday October 30th brought the children out in droves for their 'trick or treat' fun but otherwise it was a very quiet evening in the village. There were about 100 children wearing their various costumes calling on the homes on Draper St. with nothing on their minds but getting their treats. Many didn't even wait for pennies for their UNICEF boxes if others came to the door before they were handed out, but dashed on to the next house.

The Couples Club of Norval United Church had a very enjoyable evening on Thursday October 28th when about 29 couples had a smorgasborg supper and then watched the races at the Mohawk Race Track. The evening was planned by a committee of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Laidlaw, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Laidlaw, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlop and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Moffatt.

The Norval 4H Club has finished their 6th meeting on 'Focus on Fitness' with seven members learning about mental and physical fitness. They each have to read a book, make a first aid kit, learn about safety and make a craft. For the craft they have a choice of making one of either a stuffed animal, weaving a mobile or a knitted article.

Officers of the club are president, Betty June Laidlaw; vice president, Kathy Hyatt; secretary, each girl taking a turn; treasurer, Jean Wilson.

The meetings are held at the members homes. Any girl in the district who has reached the age of 12 is welcome to join the group.

At a special meeting held in the parish hall of those interested in scouting in the village, J. F. Booth offered to be the Scout Master and to get a scout group organized in the village but a Cub Leader is still needed.

A new group formed this fall, the 1st Norval Venturers, for boys aged 14 - 17, under the leadership of Mr. Art. Sweezie, now has 10 members. They meet

In St. Paul's Anglican Church basement on Wednesday evenings. All boys of this age in the district are welcome to join the group.

To help get going they are having a car wash on Saturday November 6th at the Norval Shell Station.
