House League Hockey Executive Voted in for Term

The temporary executive of the new Georgetown House League hockey association was voted in as the permanent executive at a general meeting Monday night. The president is Rick Bralsby, vice-president Don Jarvis, secretary Sheila Broadbent, treasurer Mike Mooney, executive commissioners Bill Anderson, Bill Humphreys, Jim Hepburn, Gary Hodge, Roy Norton, Bruce Osborne, promotion manager John Rogers, and executive member in charge of time keeping Lou Ward. The NHL has been increased by one team to 10 and the Senior League has been increased by two teams to six, so that all teams will have a reasonable number of personnel. The association aims at a maximum of 16 players on a roster. For the small teams the game times have been increased to two 20 minute periods from two 15 minute periods. DID YOU KNOW? St. Francis of Assisi was an Italian noted for his life of great piety and poverty. He founded the Franciscan order of monks. The Moors controlled most of the Spanish peninsula from 714 to 1212.

Industrial Pace Setters Move into Six Point Lead

Mac's Milk snipers produced eight goals to Glen Williams' three as they fashioned their second win in five starts Sunday. The loss left the Glen alone in the Georgetown Industrial League cellar. The milkmen outscored the Glen in every frame, 3-0 in the first, 2-1 in the second and 3-2 in the third to make it decisive. Glassford and Hillier each scored twice for the winners while Brading, Gregory, Parks and Haynes accounted for the other Mac's goals. Kavanagh, Glassford and Benet each picked up two assists. Sheppard scored two and Hites one of the Glen counters. Heppes and Butcher were credited with two assists apiece. NO LOSSES In the other Georgetown Industrial Hockey League game Sunday North Halton protected the goose egg in their loss column by beating Norval 3-1 in an even contest. After a scoreless first period, North Halton started producing and had a 2-0 lead over the third when they made two goals with the third North Halton goals. FUTURE GAMES Norval and the Glen meet this Sunday followed by a North Halton-Mac's Milk clash. After five games North Halton has a six point edge on their closest pursuers. They have no ties or losses for 10 points.
