

Hilts-McWilliam Wedding Vows in St. John's Church

Yellow and white mums with autumn foliage decorated St. John's United Church, October 23, for the marriage of Joan McWilliam and Douglas Hilts.

Rev. Robert Scrivens officiated and John Taylor, Acton, was organist. Mrs. Pat Grassy sang Wedding Prayer and The Lord's Prayer. The bride was given in marriage by her father in the double ring ceremony. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McWilliam, 41 Maple Avenue west, and is switchboard receptionist at Smith & Stone, Ltd. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hilts, 17 Erin St., Glen Williams, is employed with General Fireproofing.

The bride wore a floor length gown of candlelight peau de soie. A matching coat with train, and trimmed with guipure lace, was worn over the gown and featured an attached hood. She carried a prayer book with two cream cymbidium orchids, with white heather sent from Scotland.

GREEN AND GOLD

Peggy Ann Given was maid of honour, and the groom's sister Karen Hilts was bridesmaid. They wore emerald green and autumn gold velvet, respectively. Their princess line, full length gowns had long sleeves, with a train at the back. They carried bouquets of white and yellow mums with contrasting gold and green velvet streamers.

Keith Bottomley was groomsmen. Wayne Turnbull, Brampton, and the groom's brother Hal Hilts, were ushers. Groom and male attendants wore chocolate brown double breasted tuxedos and gold shirts.

Leaving the church, the groom's 9-year-old sister Colleen, presented the bride with a silver horseshoe. It had been given to Mrs. McWilliam on her own wedding day in Ayr, Scotland.

WHITE ORCHID

At a reception in the Masonic Hall, the bride's mother wore a floor length empire waist gown of cerise velvet with a white orchid. The groom's mother wore a green, floor length empire waist gown with flowing back panel, and a white orchid.

Honeymooning in the Adirondacks and later Montreal, the bride wore a mauve pant suit with two cymbidium orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Hilts are living at 60 Raylawn Crescent.

Training Course For Red Cross Visitors

Older people may have suitable housing, financial security, adequate health services and proper nutrition and yet find the added years of life futile, frustrating and nonconstructive. Experts in the field of aging have found that loneliness is the most corroding influence in the lives of people.

To combat this, volunteers are needed who will become friendly visitors. These volunteers should receive basic training.

Friendly visiting should be a regular and continuing service. It should be extended to the older citizens wherever they may be found—in homes for the aged, in Nursing Homes and Hospitals within the community, in their own homes or apartments, with relatives or friends, or in boarding houses.

The local Red Cross Branch 'Services for Seniors' Committee has set a date for their 4-hour Friendly Visiting Training Course. Further details are advertised in this issue of the Herald.

NORTH HALTON REPORT

The week ending November 6, saw officers of the Ontario Provincial Police stationed at North Halton Detachment work a total of 999 1/2 hours and travel 9,973 miles patrolling roads in the North Halton area. 118 drivers were summoned to appear in Provincial Court for traffic violations and an additional 22 motorists received warnings. Proceedings in Provincial Court in Milton resulted in 131 convictions being registered. Officers were called upon to investigate 69 general occurrences. Included in these investigations were 3 thefts, 2 break and enters and 2 disturbances. Six people were charged with violations of the Liquor Control Act. There were 3 domestic disputes, 1 person charged with public mischief and 1 impaired driver apprehended. Six occurrences of damage to property were reported and 1 car was recovered for another Police Department. The remaining occurrences were minor in nature.

During this reporting period 28 vehicles were involved in 19 collisions causing a total amount of damage estimated at $11,175.00. There were 13 people injured in 7 of these collisions. One fatal collision on the Guelph Line resulted in the death of a local youth and injuries to another one. The 11 remaining collisions resulted in property damage only. Five collisions involved drivers who failed to report the collisions and 3 drivers have been apprehended and they all now face charges of fail to report and 1 driver is also charged with careless driving. Thirteen charges have been laid against drivers involved in the 19 collisions. These charges are for: inattentive driving, fail to stop, parking on roadway, follow too closely and fail to share roadway.

Prov. Const. J.H.L. Redpath Detachment Accident Prevention Officer visited Glen Williams and Pineview Public Schools speaking to 492 students about safety.

There are two speed limits drivers should obey. One is the legal limit shown on signs. The other is the invisible speed limit. The invisible limit is the sensible speed suggested by conditions. It is set primarily by conditions of weather, traffic and road. Two other important factors that may lower the invisible speed limit are: condition of the car and condition of the driver. Sometimes the invisible limit is much lower than the posted limit.

Loblaws MAXI-SAVE DEEP CUT PRICES

GUARANTEED FINEST QUALITY FOODS YOU'LL COME OUT AHEAD

MRS. HAROLD BRAUND, Monrovia Avenue, Oshawa

MRS. G. PROCTOR, Edgewood Road, Toronto

Says Mrs. Braund, who shops for four, "I think I get value for my money at Loblaws that's why I keep coming back. I watch prices quite closely and Loblaws prices are pretty much in line with the other stores but the quality here is excellent. Particularly at the meat counter—the quality there is really very good—and the produce department is like the clean, wide aisles—everything is handy and easy to reach. Of course, something else I like is the variety of food I can get at Loblaws—I can usually find exactly what I want."

It's been two or three months since Mrs. Proctor first told us how much she enjoys shopping at Loblaws. Is she still happy with Loblaws? "Yes, I'm still well pleased with Loblaws," says Mrs. Proctor, who shops for four. "I find the prices here are still very competitive and the quality of the food is exceptionally good. I watch the ads and compare prices but for the things I want Loblaws usually seems to have the best buys—the prices are comparable but the quality is better. I think I enjoy the wide variety of fruits and vegetables I can get here and I especially enjoy the personal service at the meat counter. We eat a lot of meat and we prefer certain cuts. Anytime I can't find what I want on display I just ask the butcher to cut it for me. This is one service I really appreciate."
