

Represents Georgetown

Douglas Hauser represented Georgetown at the semi-annual meeting of the Region Four Council of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society recently.

About 100 representatives from surrounding communities were at the dinner after which the 1971-73 executive was installed.

Postpones Retirement

10th Year for Walter Gray Heading Christmas Welfare

Walter Gray is heading up the Christmas Welfare Committee for the 10th successive year, despite the fact he intended to hand the job over to others.

This year he decided to retire from the role, but was persuaded to remain when he was promised an expanded and reorganized committee to help him.

It has really been a 17 year job for Walter, since he was the Lion's Club welfare chairman for seven years, before all the service clubs combined to form one unified committee. This step helped avoid duplication of activity.

PITCHIN
The Rotary, Kinsmen, Lion, Legion, Kinetics and Lionettes, all pitch in to provide hampers of toys and Christmas dinners for anyone in need.

Last year, 70 hampers were packed. The names of the recipients are provided by Welfare Officer Tut Harrison, and by private individuals.

The committee consists of Al Blackwell, and Dick Licata of the Lions Club, Murray Thoms and Frank Petch of the Rotary, Herb Arnold and Rev. Kelvin Johnston of the Legion, and John White of the Kinsmen. Linda Schofield is secretary.

The Kinetics have taken over the collection and repair of toys.

Chairman of the committee, Walter Gray, has long experience in organizing activities. He served eight years on council and four on Planning Board and County Planning Association.

Walter Gray. This will be his 10th year of guaranteeing a merrier Christmas for welfare families.

NOVICE
Hespeler 4
Georgetown 2
Hespeler outshot Georgetown firefighters 17 to 10 to take this one. Georgetown goals were scored by Paul Morrow, from Steve Cropper and Greg Thompson, and Dave Kemshead from Mike McMenemy.
Georgetown 6
Brampton 4
Though Brampton outshot the locals 23 to 20, the firefighters made their shots count to take the game.
Marksmen were Ian Reeks, unassisted; Reeks from Phil Buck; Ed "Tiger" Dwyer, his first goal, unassisted; Bill Taylor from Dave Kemshead; Paul Morrow from Greg Thompson; Steve Cropper from Bill Taylor. An excellent effort by the whole Georgetown team.

Appearing in the cast of "Cinderella" will be Liz Fisher as Cinderella, and Dan Wagstaffe as Prince Charming.
Jean Wakefield, Helene Artuso and Isla McConnell play the stepsisters, Matilda, Griselda and Frump. Sue Dunning will be the Fairy Godmother, Derek Joyes the Prime Minister, John Hopkins the Duke and Vera Macdonald the wicked Stepmother.

Lords and Ladies of the Court will be Robert Macdonald, Don Brennan, Tom Van Alphen, David Barker, Diane Barber, Joanne Grant, Margaret Ellis and Pat Joyes.

HILL DIRECTING
Ron Hill is director. Mary Goebel is producer. She is still looking for extra backstage assistance to lighten the load during the busy Christmas season.

The play will be presented for the Georgetown audiences on Friday evening, 17 December and three times on Saturday, 18 December in the Georgetown High School.

Choreography for the four dance routines is being done by Carole Dunning of Etobicoke, who travels to Georgetown once a week to put the actors and actresses through their paces. She was an instructor with a Toronto Dance Studio and has had a great deal of experience in this field.

MAGIC SPELLS
The show is being done in full costume and there is even a custom-made pair of "glass" slippers being manufactured for Cinderella to wear to the ball. The costumes were designed by Vivianne Macdonald.

The version of "Cinderella" that G.L.T. has chosen to do places the emphasis on audience participation, allowing the children to get completely involved in helping Cinderella get off to the ball, straightening the rather confused Fairy Godmother out in her magic spells and helping Prince Charming find his true love.

The show will last approximately one hour, an ideal length of time for children.
