MEET THE GEORGETOWN RAIDERS

STEVE BLUNDY
Twenty-five year old Steve Blundy who plays left wing for Georgetown Raiders has distinguished himself around the league as probably the best skater. A Hornby resident, Steve attends Sheridan College and contributes his hockey talents to that school's team as well. He is also adept at putting the puck in the net and can check with the best of them. One of the smaller Raiders, he stands 5'8" and weighs 160 lbs.

AL STITT
This Malton school teacher had such a good season last year with Raiders that he earned the Most Valuable Player trophy. He plays right wing, wears No. 5, stands 5'10" and weighs 170. He topped all his mates in the points race last year and though he missed the early games in the schedule he will probably be back up there at the end of 71-72. His experience includes Senior A hockey with Barrie and Galt, and Orlawa.

TERRY HOLMES
A hard hitter and a good puck carrier, Terry Holmes is a valuable member of the Raider defense this season. A Georgetown resident, Terry is a Salesman with Ameri-Cat of Canada. He is 5'10" tall, weighs 185, and wears No. 8 sweater. He is a former member of the Oakville Oaks of the Senior A loop. This is his second season with Georgetown.

BUD JAMES
The Raiders' manager has been around hockey in Georgetown for a long time and at every level from the Saturday Morning league to Intermediate. He is a past president of the Saturday Morning league, and has managed the local Midgets, Junior C clubs as well as Raiders. Bud is a long-time Georgetown resident and a Smith and Stone employee.

Cougars Overtake Glen Norval Moves Up Ladder

When Glen Williams failed to score on a penalty shot which spent two minutes left they left their last chance to take a point from North Halton Cougars in a Georgetown Industrial Hockey League game in which they almost had two.

The Glen had the league leaders down 2-0 entering the final period but watching their lead disappear as North Halton whittled away.

The winning goal came off a hard shot by Jack Gudgeon which was blocked by the Glen goalie about 10 feet out. But the puck trickled through his pads and into the bottom left corner.

Both teams had third period breakaway but in both cases the player failed to get a shot away. Bill Butcher scored the Glen's first goal from Doug Hills and Doug Sargent in the first period and Benny Heppes doubled it in the second period on a goal from Butcher.

Kent Robinson and Mike Hopwood assisted on the first North Halton goal by Gudgeon. Brent Telford tied the score from Wayne McNeven on a high shot from a sharp angle, and Gudgeon got help from Lavell in netting the third Cougar goal.

In the second game, Norval leaptfrogged over Mac's Milk into second place by downing the milkmen 5-1.

Dorm Parsons was the big man in the Norval attack with three goals and two assists.
Kent Riddall from Parsons and Bruce Lewis scored for Norval, and Mike Tyler from Keith Bennett and George Blasko for Mac's Milk in the first period which ended 1-0. There was no scoring in the second. Parsons went to work and scored his three in the third period. Mac Korzack, Vaughn Thompson, and Paul Presswood, twice, were the assisters. Korzack had a goal of his own from Parsons and Kent Riddall.

Norval goes against North Halton, and the Glen plays Mac's in this coming Sunday's action.
