Ballinfad Form Village Recreation Committee — Busy Winter

Three members of the Ballinfad W.I. attended a one day short course at the home of Mrs. Fred Campbell last Thursday. Silverwood W.I. arranged for the course which was "Fashion Cues For You".

Sorry to hear Mr. Norman McLean is a patient in Guelph General Hospital.

The eighth and final meeting of the 4th Homecoming girls was held at the Ballinfad Community centre Saturday, Nov. 27. The group is planning to put on a play for the Christmas concert. The record books and stuffed toys are to be handed in to leaders by Dec. 15. "Are you a good citizen?" was the theme of the topic discussed. Achievement day will be on January 15th in Stewarttown School.

Mrs. Lorne Jamieson of Galt was a visitor at the Frank Smiths' on Sunday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall who celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on Sunday. Their family and grandchildren were present for the occasion.

Two car loads of W.I. members journeyed to Belfountain last week. They accepted the invitation of the Belfountain Branch to hear Mrs. J. Trimble speak of her trip to Norway and Sweden. Mrs. Trimble was a delegate to go to A.C.W.W. conference. She showed some interesting slides and had many items on display which she had collected on her travels. The gathering met in the Belfountain Hall. Lunch was served and a social time followed.

The Ballinfad community centre board recently held an open meeting. Several organizations were represented which included young people's groups. A recreation committee was formed and they plan to have several forms of activity during the winter season. The community Christmas Concert however will be put on by the present hall board committee.

The congregation of Ballinfad United Church were indeed privileged on Sunday morning to have as their guest preacher Mr. Peter Scott, B.A. Mr. Scott is a 3rd year student at Emmanuel College. His inspiring address was on the "Life and Work of the Church". Rev. Kevin Johnston will be present again on Dec. 5th. Baptismal services will take place during the hour of worship on that date.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Connor attended the Eb-Ho banquet and dance in Erin on Saturday night. —Winifred Smith
