150 Horse Lovers Attend

Trophy Presentations at EB-HO Riding Club Dinner

The annual banquet of the Eb-Ho riding club was held in Erin Legion hall November 27. About 150 members and guests from Georgetown and surrounding district attended.

Russ Sears, the faithful horse show announcer, was toastmaster. He introduced head table guests which included the executive, Reeve Lloyd Lang and his wife, of Erin Township and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Armstrong, he is vice president of Erin Agricultural Society.

President Duncan MacDougall addressed the guests, followed by a few words of appreciation on behalf of his wife and himself, and greetings from the council and fair board.

Mr. Sears regretted the absence of guest speaker Dave Humphries, who was called away to Pennsylvania, but as number two speaker, he did an excellent job of reviewing the three year history of the club, with expectation of bigger and greater shows in 1972.

Highlight of the evening was presentation of trophies, winners as follows:

Women's League Dinner Monday

Holy Cross Catholic Women's League had Mr. Fendley of Fendley Florists give a flower arranging display at their November meeting. Two of the members won flower arrangements created in the demonstration.

This Monday the CWL are having their annual members' Christmas dinner at Somewhere Else. Father Devent and Father Wood will be presented with gifts from the league in the form of cheques to cover the cost of new vestments.

Eggs are fresh if they sink to the bottom of a bowl of water. If they float don't bother with them.
