Presentations Conclude
CGIT, Explorers Ceremony

Evening worship was called by C.G.I.T. president Betty Campbell with Frances Engley giving the responsive reading and Mr. Peter Scott leading prayer. After this, the Rev. Robert Scrivens presented a leader's pin and blue lanyard to Mrs. Lawrence.

Mrs. Carla Rattenbury hosted the initiation of new Explorers. Girls receiving their first Red Star were: Carol Starret, Jeanette Picard and Gail Ireland.

Second Red Star: Annette Browning and Nancy Hartwick.

First Blue Star: Cindy Ash, Nicki Carney, Susan Brenner, Sharon March and Myra Cuchia.

Second Blue Star: Susan Dornback and Shauna Bartholomew.

Second Gold Star: Sandra Idzie.

Perfect attendance awards were given to Cindy Ash, Nicki Carney, Susan Brenner, Susan Dornback and Sharon March.

A donation for the Mission and Service Fund was presented to Mr. Scrivens by Myra Cuchia and Cindy Stafford with Susan Cray giving the prayer.

Following this, a presentation of the Maple Leaf Badge was made by last year's executive to the new officers who are: president, Betty Campbell; vice president, Tracy Pattullo; secretary, Anne Marie Milne; treasurer, Cindy Campbell.

The C.G.I.T. ceremony was hosted by Mrs. Ruth Ash during which Linda Brenner, Linda Carney, Sharon Fredrickson, Cathy Lamoureux, Mary Lynn Woods, Jennifer Glass, Anne Marie Milne, Cindy Campbell and Tracey Pattullo received their pins.

Senior members who received their white lanyard were Bev Brenner, Cindy Campbell and Betty Campbell.

Perfect attendance pins presented by Mrs. Ruth Steinfiatt were awarded to Betty Campbell, Bev Campbell, Jackie March, Frances Engley and Bev Brenner.

The ceremonies closed with a hymn following which Cheryl Fendley extended an invitation to everyone for games and lunch held in the church basement.

The grade two classes at Glen Williams Public School have been studying Pioneers. They started their study by visiting Black Creek Pioneer Village near Metro. The experiences gained on this trip led to a series of activities including the baking of bread and other "goodies" in a manner similar to those used by our ancestors.

The study was very successfully culminated by Pioneer Day - the day many children and their teachers came dressed in pioneer clothing.

Mr. Horace Bell recently flew to Montreal for a week's holiday visiting with relatives.

At the weekly euchre held at St. Alban's Parish Hall, the winners were: High ladies, Mrs. Muriel Miller; Low ladies, Mrs. Eva Presswood; High men, Mrs. Betty Garvin; Low ladies, Mrs. Vi Preston.

Mrs. Audrey Wilson won the meat gift donated by Preston's Lucky Dollar Store. This was the last euchre for the month of December. They will resume the first week of the New Year.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Mr. Reg Williams who recently passed away. The Williams family were longtime residents of the village before moving to Stewarttown.

Recently the Cub Scouts with leader Diane Giles and some parents attended the Air Canada Flight Simulators at Malton Airport.

The house league soccer at the Glen School has now finished. The "Hot Dogs" captained by Donald Thompson won the championship.

Mrs. Harold Armstrong of New Carlou has been visiting with her sons Ellis, Lyle and Ian and families of the district.

Wedding congratulations are extended to Harry Vellinga of the village and his bride Jenny Katerberg who were married Dec. 4, 1971 in Guelph. They will make their home on Rexway Drive in Georgetown.

On Saturday, Mrs. Jack Norton hosted a baby shower for her daughter-in-law, Bernice, (Mrs. George Norton) and granddaughter, Tammy Jo Charmaine.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent with guests Mrs. Dorothy Lusty, Josie Creighton and Jim Benny of Guelph, Bill and Hester Norton of Georgetown. Following the opening of gifts, a lovely lunch was served.

At the recent C.G.I.T. and Explorers ceremony at St. John's United Church, Brenda Ingila and Debbie Idzie greeted the mothers at the door presenting them with Christmas corsages made by the groups.

Flowers on the altar at St. Alban's Sunday morning were placed there in memory of Mr. Williams by the Guild and choir.

A good crowd showed up for a pot luck supper in St. Alban's Sunday night. Gord Graham welcomed everyone and introduced new parishioners and guests. George Sargent, John Doherty, and Doug Bryant were bankers of the money donated to the church. Mrs. Sylvia Graham and Mrs. Vi Haines presented small gifts and candy to the children. A carolling sing song followed.

Another pot luck supper will be planned in approximately four months.

Mr. John Knowles of Darley Dale, England, arrived last week to spend an extended visit with his sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Keith Blair, of R.R.5 Georgetown.

—Mrs. Donna Armstrong

SET POLLING PLACES FOR LIQUOR VOTE.

Sixteen polling places, 13 of them in schools and three in private homes, have been established for the January vote on liquor lounges for Georgetown.

Voters will go to the polls in a special referendum for opinion on whether lounges will be allowed to be established here.
