

Georgetown Choral Society entertained audiences at Mayfield school Monday, December 13 and at Georgetown high school Wednesday, December 15.

Georgetown high school band conductor Harry Hamilton takes a breath during an old fashioned instrumental jam session.

Sound of Applause, Long, Loud For Sound of Christmas

The sound of applause and lots of it followed each selection by the Georgetown high school band and Georgetown Choral Society and solo artists at The Sound of Christmas concert presented in the high school Wednesday night.

More than 400 attended the concert which represented the second public appearance of the choral society here. Coupled with the Mayfield secondary school band they presented the Sound of Christmas program at that school Monday night.

The local concert featured the choral group under the direction of Charles Crimes the high school band conducted by Harry Hamilton, soloists Brenda McNeil, Anna Burke, Tom Darcie and Al McQueen, and elementary school pupil Stacey Arcuri who told The Night Before Christmas story.

An instrumental jam session with Crimes on string bass, Hamilton on trumpet and Ralph Ursel on piano was an improvised highlight.

The Choral Society plans another concert for the end of May.

MAKE A POMANDER

This time of year fruit is plentiful and pomanders can be made from oranges, apples or lemons. It is more important that firm fruit be used and then stick whole cloves into the entire surface.

Names, Names, Names of Legion's Lucky

by RALPH HAWES

For the last few days we have been indisposed with a bum knee, which has somewhat curtailed our activities. We have been confined to barracks and in consequence have lost touch with the branch and its activities.

We find ourselves in the frustrating position that bulletin chairwoman Schofield is so often in, the deadline, but no chairman's reports.

We have a booklet from command entitled "News, and how to write it for the Legionary." Although it does not explain what to do when the poor P.R.O. receives no reports, it does tell how to be a "copy cat."

So perhaps this is the time to improvise and be a "copy cat."

Today, Sunday, seems to be the beginning of the snowmobile season, with several inches of snow covering the ground they are buzzing around like bees. This, combined with the snowy and Christmas music on the radio, brings about a feeling of winter, which causes us to look forward to spring and the 1972 Dominion Convention in Regina.

The theme of this convention will be "Challenge and Opportunity." Recommendations to be made at this convention will be: (1) To make use of the accumulated capital in excess of the original one million dollars collected for the centennial fund. The excess is about $300,000. (2) To open the doors of the Legion to admit as ordinary members those serving in the regular forces, those with not less than two years in the Reserve or Militia, and those with not less than three months active service in forces of our Allies. (3) To admit as associate members the sons and daughters of life and ordinary members or of deceased service personnel who were eligible for ordinary membership at the time of their death.

Please bear in mind the above items are recommendation only.

GUILTY

Last week we were guilty of leaving a number of names off the branch prize winners list. They were for George's Bingo, J. Gilchrist, A. Milton, I. Schofield, and A. Ashton. Upstairs at that Saturday night's dance winners were: J. Murphy, R. Hawes, M. Hibbult, H. Vickers.

This will seem to be just a list of names, reason, we have just received the winners of the 10th, 11th and 12th car club draw which took place at the turkey shoot intermission on Friday.

Tenth week winners are: B. Tolson, G. Doucette, A. Walker, H. Bennett, E. Swan, C. McFarlane. Eleventh week - G. Ingalls, M. Handley, R. Eagles, I. Renald, M. Winter, E. Shortill. Twelfth week - H. Taggart, M. Cooper, J. Hilleston, A. Ford, A. Goldie, R. McCartney.

Lucky turkey winners were: D. Tomkinson, M. Morrillarity, G. Harley, A. Porter, F. King, G. King, B. Lorusso, M. Beattie and Burns.

Saturday saw a return visit of "The Deep Sea" it was good to see them back again. The crowd could have been larger but we guess it is too near Christmas. Prize winners at the dance were C. Perry, L. Thibeault, M. McKellor, and J. Thibeault.

We had rather a unique Christmas card from a friend of ours. We would pass the wishes on to our readers. May you have "Good friends, good times, good health, good cheer, and happy days throughout the year."
