Hayes, dear mother of Gear of Georgetown, Mary (Mrs. John Emmerston) of Orangeville, Margaret (Mrs. Lloyd Covey) of Silvercreek, Betty (Mrs. Gerald Perkins), William and Bud of Georgetown, and the late Lola Hayes; also survived and lovingly remembered by 27 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.
Funeral service took place on Monday at 2.00 p.m. at the McClure-Jones Funeral Home, 34 Edith Street, Georgetown. Interment Glen Williams Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM
CHERRY—in loving memory of a dear husband, James Cherry, who died December 22, 1967. It is sad to walk the road alone, instead of side by side. But to all there comes a moment
When the ways of life divide,
You gave me years of happiness,
Then came sorrow and tears,
But you left me beautiful memories,
I will treasure through the years.
—Sodily missed by his wife Olive.

CHERRY—in loving memory of a dear grandfather, James Cherry, who died December 22, 1967. Granddad's life is a beautiful memory. His death is a silent grief. He sleeps in God's beautiful garden.
In the sunshine of perfect peace,
We miss him, Oh, how well,
But realize God knew best
He let us have him many years,
Then gently bade him rest.
—Sodily missed by his grandchildren Debbie, Johnnie, Brian, Judy, Karen and Jimmy.

FELKER—in loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Norman Felker, who passed away December 18, 1969. What we would give if we could say
Hello Dad, in the same old way,
To hear your voice, see your smile,
To sit and talk with you awhile.—Bill, Marilyn and children.

HERRINGTON—in loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Lola, who passed away December 28, 1967. A little tribute, small and tender.
Just to say we still remember.
—Lovingly remembered by her family.

SWITHENBANK—in loving memory of my brother, Leslie, who passed away December 28, 1969.—Ever remembered by sister Adrienne Becker and family.

CARDS OF THANKS
CLEAVE—Wilbert and I would like to express our sincere thanks to our friends for their flowers, gifts, cards and other acts of kindness, during my stay in hospital and since returning home. Special thanks to Dr. Duff, Dr. Kennedy and the nursing staff at the hospital—Florence Cleave.

CUNNINGHAM—I wish to thank all my friends, neighbours and relatives for the lovely flowers, gifts, cards and many visits while I was in hospital and since returning home. Also Varian Recreation Club for the lovely flowers. Special thanks to Dr. Macintosh, Dr. Panabaker and nurses on Ward B, their kindness will always be appreciated.—Marion Cunningham

McLAREN—I wish to express my sincere thanks to everyone who remembered me with visits and cards while I was a patient in the Georgetown Hospital; also to those who helped my wife. A special thanks to Dr. Englebrecht and the nursing staff.—J. H. McLaren.

SCRIVENS—I wish to express my sincere thanks to everyone and especially the members and friends of the congregation of St. John's United Church, for their kindness to me while I was a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough. Merry Christmas to all.—Mrs. Olive Scrivens.
