

Plowmen Choose Officers

Assemble Over 600
Georgetown Acres
For '74 International

Halton Plowmen's Association met at St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Hornby on Monday evening, December 13th for their annual meeting and banquet. A film was shown of the 1969 International Plowing Match held at Caledon, followed by a film on wildlife.

Special guests were Mary Anderson, Halton Furrow Queen and Len Jefferson of Ferguson, a Director on the Ontario Plowmen's Association.

The ladies then played cards while the annual meeting of the Halton Plowmen's Association was conducted. Ross Segsworth, chairman of the local committee of the 1974 International Plowing Match reported that sufficient land had been obtained for the match in the Georgetown area. Over 600 acres is required for Tented City, plowing and parking.

A large delegation from Halton County will be attending the Ontario Plowmen's Association Annual Meeting in Toronto on February 22nd to advertise the 1974 match. Directors chosen to the O.P.A. annual from Halton are Bill Raynor, Spencer Wilson, Ross Segsworth and Lloyd Stokes. The secretary-treasurer of the Halton Club, Jack Taylor, is the current president of the Ontario Plowmen's Association.

Husband Was
Member of Old
Glen Family

A woman whose husband was a member of an old Glen Williams family was buried in the Glen Cemetery following funeral service in Toronto, December 8. Mrs. Myra Williams, 79, died at Dorval, Quebec. Her husband, the late Harry B. Williams was a son of Joseph Williams. The Williams family had a woolen mill, now burned down, and lived in the large house above the mill later burned by the Barraclouchs. The family also established a grist mill where Apple Products is now located.

Mrs. Williams leaves a daughter, Mrs. William Jackson of Dorval and a son, Ken, and a brother Ivan Hargreaves.
