Do you know exactly where the flasher switch is on your instrument panel? Could you put your hand on it unerringly in the dark? The Ontario Safety League points out that the flasher is used so seldom that drivers could waste precious time fumbling for it in an emergency, unless they drill themselves into memorizing the location.

Ballinafad Merry Makers Saw New Year Arrive at Ballinafad Hall

Tickets were sold in advance for the New Year's Eve Dance which was held in the Ballinafad Community Centre on Friday evening. A large crowd of merry makers came to see the old year out and the new year in.
There were dances for the young and music to suit those not so young besides several novelty dances which delighted all those present. A buffet luncheon of fried chicken, salad, rolls and fancy cakes was served just after midnight. Music was supplied by Mr. Arbie of Acton.
The many friends of Mr. Norman McLean were pleased he was able to leave hospital and enjoy the holiday season at his home with his family.
Friends and acquaintances from the Ballinafad area attended the funeral of the late Mrs. B. Leitch who died rather suddenly last Thursday. The funeral took place on New Year's Day from the Butcher Funeral Home, Hillsburgh.

Sorry to have to report that Mr. F. W. Shortill is a patient in Georgetown & District Hospital. Hope he responds to treatment and gets his strength back very soon.
Many Happy Returns to Susan O'Connor who celebrated her 4th birthday on Tuesday January 4th.
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall attended the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McMaster on Sunday afternoon. It was held at Caledon Town Hall. —Winifred Smith

Charles the Walker Added 2,000 Miles

Among those marking the end of the year by reflecting on the achievements of 1971 was Charles Burns, the well known former Georgetown resident who now takes his strolls out of Halton Manor.
Mr. Burns reports he completed 2,000 miles of walking during the year.
His walking season really only lasted from April until the end of October. He confines his daily walks in the winter months to the halls and corridors of the Manor because he doesn't like trudging around the country side in bad weather.
"It has been pretty nasty for walking lately," Mr. Burns said. "But if the weather turns nice I'll be out for a stroll."
Mr. Burns is in his 80s.
