Norval

Norval Scouts enjoyed a winter outing during the Christmas holidays and learned about winter camping. They hiked a little piece up the Credit River and enjoyed their dinner cooked over the camp fire.

Get well wishes are extended to Miss Bertha Barnes who is a patient in Milton & District Hospital.

Mr. Ed McLean, Norval, and his son Ronald of Caledon East attended the Central Jacobin Pigeon Club Meet held at Port Huron, Michigan, on the weekend. They entered 12 of their Jacobins and returned with two Champions and all other birds placed well with the winners.

Shows Brazil Slides At Meeting of IODE

Miss Margery Mackenzie showed slides taken during a recent trip which she and Miss Olive Logan had taken to Brazil, at a meeting of Countess of Strathmore Chapter, IODE, Monday evening.

Mrs. John T. Armstrong was hostess at her home on Parkview Boulevard, and the regent, Mrs. Sam Penrice, extended happy new year wishes to the members. Minutes were read by Mrs. A. W. Gilmer and the treasurer's report given by Miss Jean Mackenzie.

Mrs. Denney Charles, education convener, reported that IODE calendars have been placed in local school classrooms. Members will be supplying a large Inyette which will be sent to a hospital in the Northwest Territories. Mrs. James F. Evans, services at

W.I. Discussion on Misleading Advertising

The Women's Institute met at the home of the president, Mrs. Frank Brown, in Georgetown, the meeting opening with prayer and singing 'Pack Up Your Troubles'.

and read by Mrs. A. W. Benton. Mrs. Jack Roughley, program convener, read an article 'Hidden Persuaders' dealing with misleading advertising.

Meeting closed with members singing 'There's No Place Like Home'. The hostess and Mrs. Grisy provided lunch for a social hour after.

In spite of inclement weather, there was a good attendance at the 9.30 a.m. service at Limehouse Presbyterian Church Sunday. The choir sang an anthem.

MURPHY—Terry and Gail Murphy, 59 King Street East, are happy to announce the birth of their son, Sean Patrick, on January 3, 1972, at Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital, weighing 8 lbs. 9 ozs.

TAYLOR—Bob and Dianne, 15 Tweedle Street, Glen Williams, are pleased to announce the birth of their son, Craig Lee, on Friday, December 31, 1971, at Memorial Hospital, Brampton. A welcome brother for Gayle Marie and Laura Lynne.

BAXTER—Elsie Louise, suddenly, on Monday January 10, 1972, at her home, 7 Lane Court, Elsie Louise Coburn, in her 79th year, wife of the late Walter Baxter and dear mother of Bernice Robson and sister of Bill Coburn of Toronto; dear grandmother of Danny, Bill and Ed and great-grandmother of David. Funeral service and committal were held on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the McClure-Jones Funeral Home, 34 Edith Street. Cremation followed, in lieu of flowers memorial gifts to the Ontario Heart Foundation would be appreciated.

HARLEY—in loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Bertha Harley, who died January 14, 1971. Grievedly missed and lovingly remembered by Terry, Marlene, Gay and Russell.

HARLEY—in loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Bertha Harley, who passed away January 14, 1971. In our hearts your memory lingers. Sweetly tender, fond and true: There's not a day, dear mother, That we do not think of you. Ever remembered by Jean, Don, Dean and Jamie.

HARLEY—in loving memory of a dear mother, Bertha, who passed away January 14, 1971. Sadly missed along life's way, Quilt remembered every day, No longer in our life to share, But in our hearts she is always there. Always remembered by son Harold in-law Mae and grandchildren.

SHEPPARD—in memory of a dear son, Harold Sheppard, who died January 14, 1969. His charming ways and smiling face are a pleasure to recall. He was a kindly word for each and died beloved by all. Sadly missed, Dad, Mother and family.

SANDELANDS—in loving memory of Lillian Mary Sandelands, who died January 10, 1971. Those whom we love go out of sight, But never out of mind: They are cherished in the hearts of those they leave behind. Always remembered, Vincent, Graham, Dianne and David.

SANDELANDS—in loving memory of a dear niece, Lillian Mary Sandelands, who died January 10, 1971. The depths of sorrow we cannot tell. Of the loss of one we loved so well, And while she sleeps a peaceful sleep Her memory we shall always keep. Ever remembered by Auntie Nellie and Uncle Sid.

BARBER—I wish to thank all my relatives, friends and good neighbours on Normandy Blvd. for their gifts, cards of sympathy, visits, best wishes and kind enquiries, while I was a patient in Hospital and since returning home. Your kindness will always be remembered and may the New Year be happy and prosperous to all. Sincerely—John Barber.

HAYES—in the midst of our sorrow we wish to express thanks and appreciation to my relatives and friends for kindness and sympathy shown, in the sad loss of our dear mother. A special thanks for the lovely floral offerings and messages of sympathy. A sincere thanks to Dr. Kennedy and Dr. Macintosh and the nurses of Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital for the kindness shown to our beloved mother. Miss Alice R. Davidson Hayes, also to Rev. W. Cairns who conducted the services in such a sympathetic manner, and the McClure-Jones Funeral Home for the kindness and courtesy shown us and our friends.—The Hayes Family.
