Madrigal Member Visits Relatives

One member of the professional rock group Madrigal which appeared here for a Georgetown high school dance Friday took the opportunity to visit relatives in Georgetown.
 Bass player John Swainson is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hibbert, Noble Court and was their guest for dinner prior to the high school appearance.
 Swainson, with Peter Boynton on piano, Rick Henderson on guitar, Don Simpson on drums and Dave Stein, who handles the lead vocals, is a full time musician as a member of Madrigal.
 The group has cut two singles and an LP.

Ballinacraigh Birthdays

 O'Connor, was served and the birthday song was sung. Prizewinners at cards — ladies, Mrs. Audrey Wilson, Mrs. Helen McPherson; men, Willard Britton, George Burt. A prize was given to one having a birthday nearest to January 11. It was won by Elwood Snow. Lucky chair prize went to Mrs. Hugh Bass and the lucky cup prize to Mrs. Britton.

Recent visitors with the Eckerts were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ballantine and family of Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wells of Bramalea were week-end visitors with the O'Connors.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall spent Sunday in Toronto visiting with their family.

Raiders Stop Welland

 after five and a half minutes of the third period. Duffy McCarthy pounced on a mistake and walked around Welland goalie Peter Jinkins with Raiders' third goal which started a flurry of goals in the final three minutes.
 Brian Law got lucky with a shot which turned into Marauders' second goal after three caroms off sticks and legs that came with two minutes left.
 Georgetown's fourth score was also of the horse shoe variety. Neil Cotton launched the long shot which Welland rear guard Rick David steered into his own unguarded goal with a little more than a minute to go.
 Veteran referee Jack Clancy called it the best intermediate hockey game he has seen in 20 years. Clancy had an easy night of it handing out just two penalties, one to each team, and they didn't come until the third period. Neither team was able to take advantage.

Home Nursing

Anyone who does not know how to promote safety, prevent needless home accidents, the how and when of artificial respiration, how to administer medications, how to care for bed-ridden members of the family and how to act in emergencies can benefit from a Georgetown Red Cross Home Nursing Course.

Waiting Reply
The Bruce Trail Association and Provincial Secretary John Yaremko are not talking to each other - over a piece of land Yaremko owns near Acton. James Pierce, past president of the Radial Line Trail Association, a section of the Bruce Trail Association, says Yaremko has not answered requests dating back a year for permission to use the northern edge of his land for a trail.
The trail runs from Guelph to join up with the Bruce Trail near Acton. It follows the road bed of the old electric railway that was ripped up in the early 30s.
