Colour Is The Magic Wand in Decorating

The Herald welcomes a Georgetown resident, Joan Butterfield, this week, Mrs. Butterfield will be contributing a column on interior decorating.

She has taken a course in interior design at night school, and is now enrolled as a student in the Chicago School of Interior Decorat-

A native of Somerset. Bermuda, she lives with her husband, Sheridan, and their two young sons, Theron and Doyle, at 27 Pennington Crescent. Mr. Butterfield is a Northern Electric employee at Bramalea.

Color is magic as far as decorating is concerned. It's just one element used for successful decorating, but is the least expensive, most effective of all decorating tools and can be used as lavishly by the budget decorator as by the free spender.

One should not be afraid of color. Think of it as your magic wand to be waved at every room in your home. It's just the beauty of nature | WEST NORTH EAST SOUTH being brought indoors.

A color scheme may be obtained from a rug, or the wallpaper. It is 3S interesting to repeat the background color of the wallpaper for the | Dble | All Pass painted areas in the room, and the pattern colors for the upholstery, draperies, and accessories, using, variations of the color tones.

Perhaps a drapery fabric has a color arrangement which you like, colors from the background and pattern may be repeated in the

with its beautiful combination and subtle changes. Become aware of color arrangement in gardens. As you are doing your marketing look at the colors of the vegetables. When in the country observe what nature does from the standpoint of color.

With all this in mind you can now forge ahead with courage rather than caution, working miracles you never thought possible, and dazzle everyone with the beauty of your creations.
