

AUTHOR VISITS CENTENNIAL SCHOOL

Jill Barker and Diane Ellis of Centennial public school show author Miss Jean Little some of her novels from the school library during a visit to the school recently. Miss Little, who writes for girls in the 1-12 years age bracket, spoke to pupils of seven grade eight classes there, explaining how an original idea becomes a book. Now a Guelph resident, Miss Little is best known for novels Mine for Keeps, and Look Through My Window. Six of her books are in the Centennial library.

Milk Men Meet, Name Officers

Some 40 milk producers in Halton County met for their annual meeting at the Community Centre, Hornby on Wednesday, February 2. Guest speaker was Lloyd Stephens, chairman of the Ontario Milk Processors' Council. He discussed the problems that processors were having with the decrease in the supply of milk in 1971. Many milk plants are equipped to handle much more milk than they are receiving.

Other speakers were Francis Redelmeier, a member of the O.M.M.B., Ed Duncan, O.M.M.B. Fieldman, and Fred Eckel, Ontario Milk Commission Fieldman.

TOP PRODUCERS
Each year the top producers in Halton from a quality standpoint are announced. This year the joint winners were Tovell Brothers, Palermo; Stan Waters, Georgetown and Harold Wettlaufer, Palermo.

Directors chosen for a three year term were: V. J. Lawrence, Oakville; Bruce McClure, Georgetown 3; Russell Hurren, Campbellville 2; John Bird, Georgetown 2; and Wm. Mahon, Campbellville 2.

OFFICERS

Brock Harris, Milton 6 was chosen as President for 1972 with Russell Hurren as Vice-President and V. J. Lawrence as Secretary-Treasurer. The Executive Committee are George Pelletier and Fred Nurse. Safety Rep. is Horace Blythe and Federation Rep. is Ford Wickson.

Thief Empties Vending Machines

Vending machines yielded a small amount of change and a few packages of cigarettes to a burglar at the E. W. Bliss plant on Guelph Street sometime early Tuesday morning.
A panel in a sliding door at the back of the plant was broken to gain entry.

St. John's Adds Teens To Session, Stewards

Monday evening, January 31, 135 members of the congregation of St. John's United Church of Georgetown and Glen Williams sat down to a pot luck supper in the church hall.

The amalgamation of the two congregations took place earlier this year. The Glen church was formerly part of the Norval charge which is now combined with Huttonville.

Following supper, there was a period of singing of several of the more modern hymns and spiritual songs, led by Peter Scott, student assistant minister. A quartet made up of Mr. Scott, Carl Schenk, John Robertson and Henry Jaques, sang two hymns.

The children retired to the Sunday School room to view films, while the business of the annual meeting was conducted.

Rev. Robert O. Scrivens chaired the meeting, with Mrs. A. J. Livingstone, recording secretary, taking minutes. The meeting opened with reading of a portion of the second chapter of the Book of Acts and a devotional message focussing on the goal of the communication of the gospel for 1972.

Reports, previously prepared and issued in book form, were considered and an election of new elders to be added to the Session, and of new stewards to be added to the Committee of Stewards, was conducted.

YOUNG PEOPLE

Several young people in their late teens were elected to the Session and Stewards, along with others, bringing the number of Session members to 45, and the Committee of Stewards, 28.

Harvey Handy was re-elected to Session. New members are Mrs. Jack Bailey, Mrs. James Broughton, Mrs. Donald Burt, Austin Carpenter, Fred Hall, Jim Macdonald, Christine McNamara, Gordon McCulloch, Ted Peck, Trudy Peck, John Robertson, Dave Shrubsole, Ross Wicks and Jane Williams.

Continuing on the Session are Hazen Allen, George Armitage, Ron Athley, Tracy Barrager, Alex Berzish, Reg Broomhead, Mrs. Walter Brownridge, Mrs. Clarence Buck, James F. Evans, Graham Farnell, Ernest Forgrave, Stuart Hall, Roy Hansen, Dave Hastings, Mrs. Clarence Hayes, Mrs. Henry Jaques, Jim Jones, E. W. (Ted) Lawrence, John Nichols, Alan Prouse, Jack Runham, Carl Schenk, Mrs. Verlena Sinclair, Val Stein, Dick Whetter, Trevor Williams and Peter Scott.

FAITHFULNESS

Robert Collett was re-elected to the Committee of Stewards. New members are Gordon Cave, Don Fleischer, Ray Hammond, Don Hauser, Elizabeth Hay, Robert Hall, Jim Jaques, Jim Lawrence, Mrs. Jackie Morrow, Jim Morwick, Mrs. Jean Macdonald, Mrs. Sandy Robertson, Mrs. Carl Schenk. Members continuing are Keith Arthurton, Dennis Carr, Delmar French, Gerald Getty, Bill Hewitt, Charles Leggat, Bud Livingstone, Glenn Magnuson.

Guest Speaker

KATHERINE EASTHAM

Social & Personal

Mrs. Ena Mossop, 18 James Street, celebrated her seventy-fifth birthday with nine of her children, two living in the West could not attend. Her youngest son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Perc Mossop, 4 Fletcher Place, Weston, had a sit down supper for her and her family. Her four daughters gave her a family ring, she also received a dozen red roses and cards containing money.

Thinking of Selling Consult a Realtor

In 1970 approximately $15,000,000 worth of real estate was sold through the Multiple Listing Services of the Brampton Real Estate Board. The board is constantly striving to establish and standardize the profession in a manner that will create and retain public confidence and respect. So if you are considering selling, look for your guide to professional services which only a Realtor can display.
