Take-A-Break Gals Learn Of Hypnosis in Medicine

Dr. Boyd Hoddinott makes a point in hypnosis discussion. He was guest speaker at the Y's Ladies Take-A-Break, February 15.

Tuesday is a foscinating morning for the group of ladies who attend the Y.W.C.A.'s "Ladles Take-a-Break" at the Mountainview Baptist Church. Since September they have been treated to a series of interesting talks on a wide variety of toples, such as; Women's position in Canadian Law, Drug Abuse, Interior Decorating and The Value of Toys in Child Play. The ladies obviously enjoy this chance to broaden their outlook and they make full use of the coffee break to discuss points with their friends before questioning the speaker.

CAN RELAX What a welcome break this is for the ladies who live locally. They can walk to the meeting and relax, knowing that while they are busy, their children are happy and well cared for in the

On Tuesday February 15, Dr. Boyd Hoddinott gave an intriguing talk on the use of hypnosis in medicine.

Most of the audience had a misconception of hypnosis. having been aware of only the stage aspect of this topic. Dr. Hoddinott showed how hypnosis can be used to help people overcome such problems as obesity and nail biting as well as more serious problems such as amnesia. He also outlined many facets of hypnosis which we can experience in every day life, for example sleepwalking, which are not usually thought of as a hypnotic state.

QUESTIONS The ladies were so interested in the talk and had so many
