WITH 12 CHANNEL CABLE TV YOU'RE NOT STUCK WITH REPEATS

Sure, in Spring and Summer, you like to spend more time outside. But, when it's dark, you still want to relax with television entertainment, and not the same old stuff you watched all winter.

Cable T.V. subscribers keep finding lots of programmes they've never seen before... all Summer long... and the reception is just great.

That's the way it is when you switch to Cable T.V.'s superior reception. Try it!

forward in front of Pallett. The insult apparently struck a nerve in league scoring champ Duane Rutley and Tom Balkwill who decided not to join their teammates in offering congratulations and went straight to the dressing room.

A capacity crowd who had turned their backs on a televised Bruin-Leaf tussle to watch Raiders claim their glory were loud in their appreciation when it was all over.

BEST GAME
Raiders fans had it second best as far as watching quality hockey is concerned. All the close contests were on Welland ice including the best game of the series Friday night.

The teams battled scoreless through the first period but Bill Currie put Georgetown one up after three minutes of the second. His encore was 10 minutes later from Hymers.

Gerry Maney's goal early in the third period created a tense situation for Georgetown fans in the crowd until Ron Lane took the pressure off with Raider's third goal with a minute and four seconds left.

Georgetown had a 41-28 advantage in shots. Sunday it was 61-33.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Kitty Hyde and children, Sue, Michael and Jeff, from Ottawa, have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hyde, Ewing Street, for the past two weeks. Mr. Lynne Hyde joined them on the weekend, he had been doing a show in the west.

Following the confirmation of their elder daughter Diane at St. George's Anglican Church on Sunday, April 9 Mr. and Mrs. M. Herbert, 22 Hewson Crescent entertained at a buffet supper. Diane's god parents Mr. and Mrs. William Malham of Hamilton and Mrs. E. Caruso of Georgetown were in attendance along with Mr. Caruso, grandmothers Mrs. T. Herbert and Mrs. T. Mabee both of Georgetown, cousins Christine and Susan Malham of Hamilton and John Tost of Georgetown, and Diane's sister Karen.

PLANNING TOPIC OF C.C.O.G. PANEL

A panel discussion on town planning and regional government will be the feature of a Concerned Citizens of Georgetown meeting, Tuesday in the high school cafeteria.

The panel will consist of Crs. Donna Denison, Phil Siddall, and Ern Hyde. Cr. Siddall is a member of the Planning Board, Cr. Hyde was a member of the Planning Board till this year, and Cr. Denison is a member of the Recreation Committee.

Discussion will not be limited to the panel, as questions from the floor will be encouraged.

GEORGIAN BAY CHAMPS

Durham Huskies are the last hurdle on the course to the Ontario Intermediate A cup which hasn't had Georgetown inscribed on it since 1957. Raiders last won an Ontario championship in 1959 when they defeated Thorold for the Intermediate B crown.

Huskies, Georgian Bay District League champs, are here for the opener of the Ontario finals tomorrow night. The second game will be a Sunday afternoon meeting in Durham, with game three here Wednesday, and game four Friday in Durham. Dates for additional games will be set as they become necessary.

CARDS OF THANKS

DOLSON—I wish to thank my relatives, friends and neighbours for cards and flowers and kind inquiries while I was a patient in Toronto Western Hospital.—Harold Dolson.

HANCOCK—I would like to thank all my friends and neighbours for cards and thoughtfulness while I was a patient in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. Special thanks to the nurses and staff of the hospital, also special thanks to Dr. Ganley, Dr. McCombe, Dr. Macintosh and Dr. Panabaker.—Charles Hancock.

HULSBOS—Deepest appreciation is extended to all who were very kind during the time of my bereavement of a dear husband, and for the lovely floral tributes, cards and donations made in his memory. Deep gratitude is expressed to our minister, Al J. Vandenberg, Dr. J. P. Panabaker and the McClure-Jones Funeral Home for their kind assistance.—Grle Huisbos.

MERCER—The family of the late Stanley J. Mercer wishes to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to all their relatives, friends and neighbours for their beautiful floral tributes, donations and words of comfort and many kindnesses during their recent bereavement. Special thanks to the staff at Oakville-Trafalgar and Milton hospitals and also the Rev. R. Gallagher, Mrs. Stanley Mercer and family.
