Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graff Linda Bailey, John Graff Exchange Wedding Vows

Now living at 134 Maple Avenue East, Mr. and Mrs. John Howard Graff were married in Hillcrest United Church March 24. Candelabra and white and yellow mums decorated the church for the ceremony, performed by Rev. Lynne Adams. The bride, Linda Louise Bailey, was given in marriage by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Bailey, R.R.2, Georgetown. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graff, 16 Charles Street.

The bridal gown was of Victorian style with veil and train of delicate lace. She wore a brooch, a family heirloom given to her by her grandmother Bailey, and carried red roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Eleanor Smith, Linthouse, was matron of honour. The groom's twin sister, Jane Graff, and the bride's

Silver-Wood Birthday Party Mother, Now 88

Mr. and Mrs. George Burt had a family gathering Mother's day to celebrate Mrs. Burt's mother's 88th birthday. Over 33 relatives attended for a buffet lunch and birthday cake.

Silver-Wood Women's Institute had their May meeting at Mrs. Marchington's home May 11 with 20 women attending. Mrs. Leslie Giffen presided, and roll call was answered by a verse on health.

Mrs. Norton, health convener, had invited Miss Sally Chodorove from the health unit to the meeting, and her talk proved interesting to the women.

Baking, in preparation for the District Annual, was judged, and Mrs. Norton was winner for both fruit loaf and squares. She, with Mrs. Giffen and Mrs. Burt will be a delegate to this.

Mrs. H. Marchington gave a splendid report on the officers' conference she had attended in Guelph. There was a plant sale, with a good sum of money raised.

Mrs. Donald Lindsay held a miscellaneous shower for a bride-to-be, Eva Lindauer. She received many lovely gifts.

—Mrs. George Burt.

Norval Six Infants Baptized in Norval Churches

Infants baptized at Norval United Church on Family Sunday, May 14 by Rev. R. Walter Hildley were Shawn Kevin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carney; Travis Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cordingley; Paul William Joseph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howse; Michael Peter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hutton; and Darryl Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hyatt.

Todd Melvyn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Storey was baptized by Rev. Kenneth Jull at Huttonville United Church on Sunday, May 14.

At Norval Presbyterian Church Jacqueline Heather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Davis, R.R.2, Brampton, was baptised by Rev. H. Smith on Sunday morning.

Rev. Howard Smith attended the Presbyterian Men's Conference at Erin College, London, on Friday and Saturday.

Norval United Church Women held a successful rummage sale at the Odd Fellows Hall, Brampton, on Saturday, May 13. The committee in charge were Mrs. Lenore Laidlaw, Mrs. Rosie Laidlaw and Mrs. Noreen VanLieuwen.

Norval district was saddened by the death of two well known persons this past week. One was 19 year old Paul Fendley who died following a hockey accident while playing for the Guelph CMC team. Paul was a well liked young man and his future in hockey looked bright.

Floral tributes overflowed space for them at the McClure-Jones Funeral Home in Georgetown and many "best player" and other hockey trophies have been put up in his memory. Guelph and Kitchener flew their flags at half mast as Paul was one of their most popular hockey players.

Norval Presbyterian Church overflowed with those attending his funeral on Thursday afternoon with members of his team as pallbearers and flower-bearers. Following the service Mr. and Mrs. Ron Dixon of Georgetown were hosts to relatives and friends. Mr. Dixon was Paul's hockey coach when he played in Georgetown and is now coaching his brother Tom.

Paul was the son of Mrs. Will Collins of Georgetown and the late Norman Fendley and lived in Norval until about the age of 12 when the family moved to Georgetown.

The other death to sadden the community was that of Florence McLaughlin Giffen, wife of Wilbert Gleave of Georgetown. Mrs. Gleave had many friends in the Norval Georgetown and Ashgrove district who will miss her cheerful, outgoing and helpful personality. She was always willing to lend a hand to others. The funeral was held in Norval United Church on Friday afternoon with a full church. Those who sat in the basement listened to the service over an intercom speaker. Following the service Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt McClure were hosts to the relatives and friends.

The family of Mr. and Mrs.

Russell Goodfellow surprised them with a party in Snelgrove Hall on Saturday evening May 6 in honour of their 25th wedding anniversary. They took their parents out to dinner and then to the hall for the surprise party where 50 to 75 relatives and friends enjoyed dancing to disc jockey Charlie Twist's music. An honored guest was Mr. Goodfellow's 84 year old mother from Bolton. The family who planned the enjoyable evening were Joanne (Mrs. John Grove) of Oakridges, Jean, Charles and Glen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McLean celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on Monday May 8 quietly at home with their family. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McLean and David of Caledon East, Mr. and Mrs. John Hutton, Stacey and Alex of R.R.3, Streetsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Handy and Michael of Georgetown.
