

ADVENTURE IN CITIZENSHIP

PLANT SEEDS OF HOPE

North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded president William Treahy and Mrs. Marianne Smith, wife of Georgetown mayor Bill Smith, plant "seeds of hope" in a garden at Cedarvale Community Centre to mark the 1972 Flowers of Hope campaign for funds. This year, the seeds of hope, have been mailed to householders since there is no house-to-house canvass. Contributions support the work-shop for adult retarded at Hornby and Tinkerbell Nursery which provides pre-school training for retarded and other handicapped children.
