Prior to settling in Georgetown Bob spent 13 years in British Columbia where he was associated with construction trades, radio broadcasting and television arts. He has taught local night school in photography and has considerable experience in law and real estate. He has a personal knowledge of farming and harness horses. You name it — we'll have know-how and interesting conversation from "Turk." Your real estate requirements are his serious business.

Murray Smith resides in the town of Acton and has been servicing a wide range of people in a wide range of properties for the past five years. He has been active in Brampton, Georgetown, Acton and surrounding rural area. Before entering the real estate profession, Murray was highly respected in the tannery and livestock businesses as he spent numerous years in both. He was the first Canadian to speak at the National Hide Convention at the New York Hilton. He has been on the Public School Board of Acton for 15 years, a Director of the Acton YMCA, an Elder in the Presbyterian church.

Bill Ellis has been engaged in the field of Industrial Marketing and Sales Promotion for several years, and has been actively involved in the Georgetown real estate market for the past year. "Service" is Bill's motto. He feels that he has an extremely strong responsibility to his clients, to give them his best possible service and to assist them as much as possible with respect to their real estate needs. Bill is a Georgetown resident.

Bob Martin has been successfully selling real estate in the Brampton and Georgetown areas as well as in the surrounding rural areas for in excess of three years. He has been residing in Georgetown for the past seven years. Prior to entering the real estate profession he was with Northern Electric in Bramalea for six years. Bob is an enthusiastic sports fan and this same enthusiasm is shown in his desire to serve his clientele to the best of his ability.

Don Jarvie has lived and has been involved in service work in Georgetown and area both in business and in minor sports for the past 20 years. Don is a past president of the Tri County Minor Hockey Association, referee in chief of the same, first vice-president of Georgetown Minor Hockey Association and first vice-president of the Georgetown Optimist Club. He is also a member of the Georgetown Golf and Country Club. Don is looking forward to serving you in your real estate needs.
