Kinsmen Marathon

It's Solid Soccer Saturday Cedarvale Showdown Sunday

Ninety games of soccer will determine five champions and raise money for minor sports in Georgetown in a marathon soccer tournament which Georgetown Kinsmen will operate in the fairgrounds and at Cedarvale, Saturday and Sunday.

Six hundred and eighty boys in the 6 to 16 age range are seeking pledges this week in preparation for the tourney. They will be sponsored for each game they play and can only progress by winning their rounds.

There will be continuous play from Saturday 8 a.m. through the morning and afternoon, with remaining games and finals Sunday.

At the fairgrounds, field number one is closest to the armory, field two is in the centre of the infield, and field three is at the extreme west end.

Now Georgetown

Beat Hornby 28-4 Royalettes Host Acton Friday

Georgetown Royalettes got off to a slow start, but ended by routing Hornby 28-4 in last week's game in the intermediate ladies' fastball league.

Hornby loaded the bases twice in the early innings, but couldn't convert this to runs.

Georgetown exploded in the 4th, scoring 12 runs, including five homers. Carolyn Barber had a grand slam home run, with other long ball hits from the bats of Lyn Scarborough and Lois Sherk, both with two.

This Friday Royalettes are host to Acton at the park.

A, B, AB and O are the principal blood groups.

Mets Win Rockwood Protest, Blank Glen

The erstwhile Norval inter-county fastball team will now be known as Georgetown Mets, with Dairy Queen taking over sponsorship.

Mets are coached and managed by Ike Inglis and Tom Peavoy, with Norm Lockhurst treasurer and Gilbert Preston secretary.

Mets opened in Rockwood last Thursday, losing 8-2. But the game was tossed out when Georgetown protested Rockwood's use of unlicensed players.

TWO HITS Big John Holtby, a familiar knuckle ball artist, allowed Hespeler only two hits and collected two hits himself to earn a 1-0 shutout Friday in the Glen.

Mets will be identified with new red, white and blue uniforms later this month. Their home games will alternate with the Glen, Tuesdays, Fridays and Sundays, with a majority of Friday games.

COMPETITION Georgetown is matched in inter-county with Glen Williams, Williams, B. Neil, N. Korzack, B. Neil, W. Ackroyd, D. Glassford, G. Moody, B. Maveal and J. Holtby.

MEMORIAMs

WEBSTER—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Raymond Webster, who passed away June 3, 1972.—Ever remembered by his wife and family.

CARDS OF THANKS

TO EAST GEORGETOWN—I would like to sincerely thank each and everyone of you who took the time to think about and reply to a survey we took in your area in order to obtain guidance in how to develop a certain building and parcel of land in your area. Thanks again.—Harold J. Foberl.

HILTS—We wish to sincerely thank all our relations, friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness in the death of my dear husband and father. The floral tributes, memorial contributions and the messages of sympathy were very much appreciated. A special thanks to the McClure-Jones Funeral Home, doctors, pallbearers and the Rev. W. O. Scriven for his kind words.—Alice Hills and family.

RED CROSS—The Blood Donor Committee would like to thank the donors who responded to this summer appeal, all volunteers and volunteers, nursing staff and drivers who helped at the clinic, Mrs. Annucks, telephone canvassers and Mrs. Coleman again reminded and helped donors. Special mention is due the GVAS members who helped set up the clinic, Coca Cola Co. for refreshments and Dr. A. Kennedy who was on call for the day. A pleasant musical touch was provided by the "Flowerettes" barbershop quartette during the evening. Thank you one and all.—Mrs. G. Walsh, convener; Mrs. E. Thompson, chairman.
